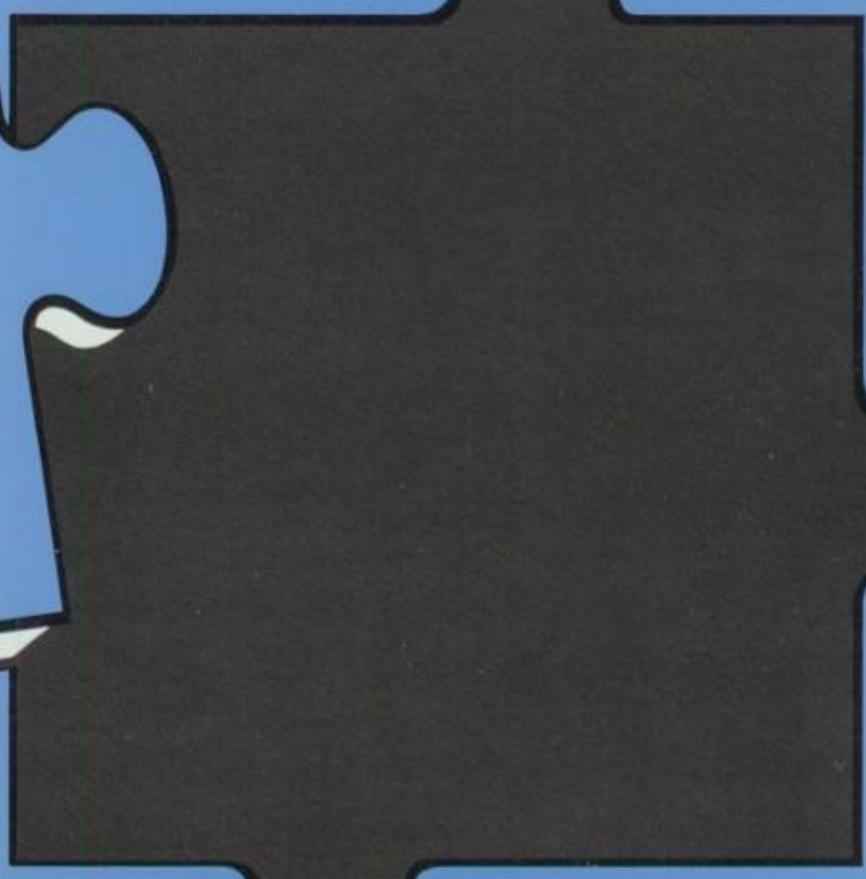
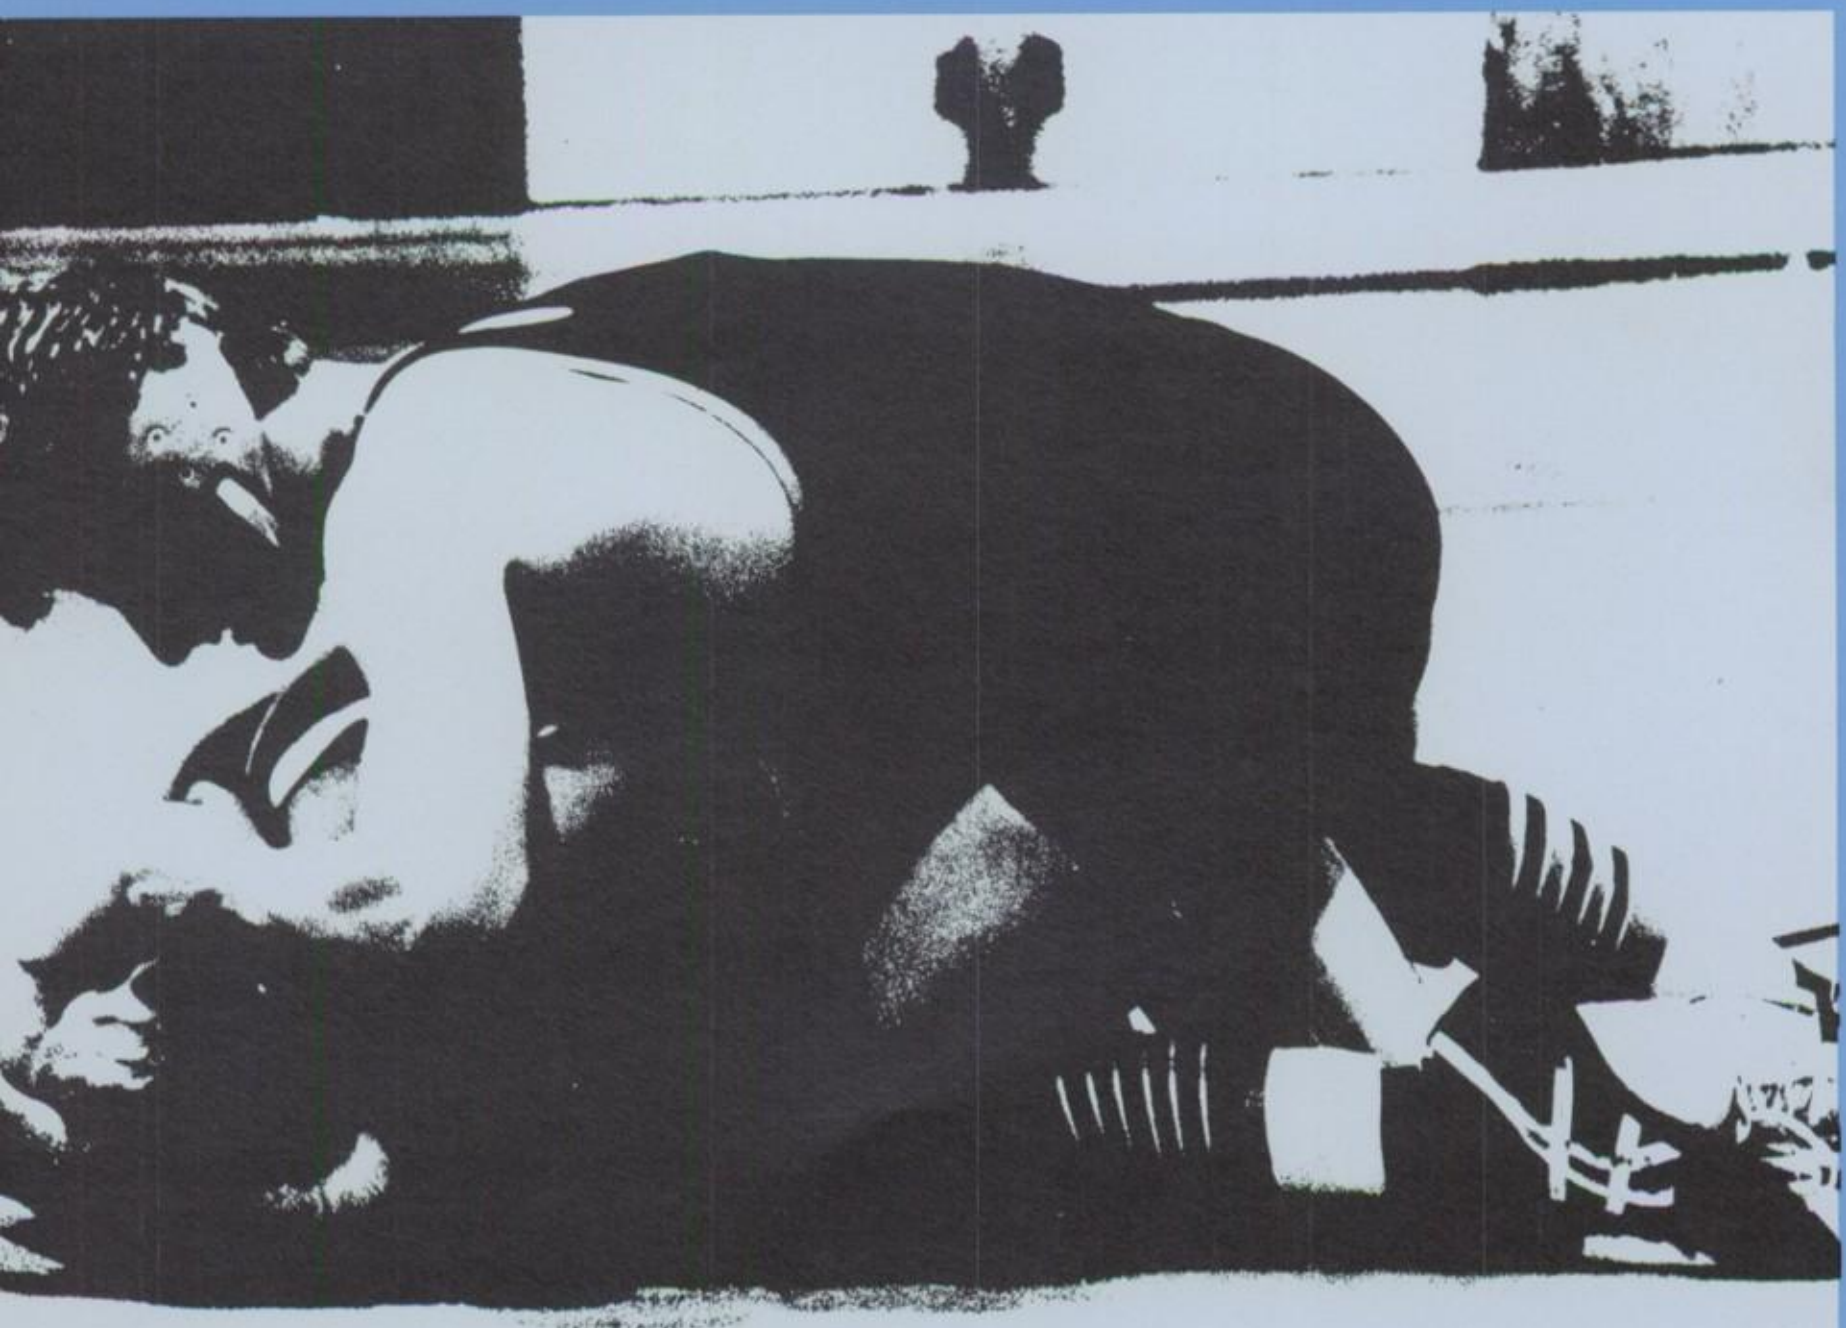
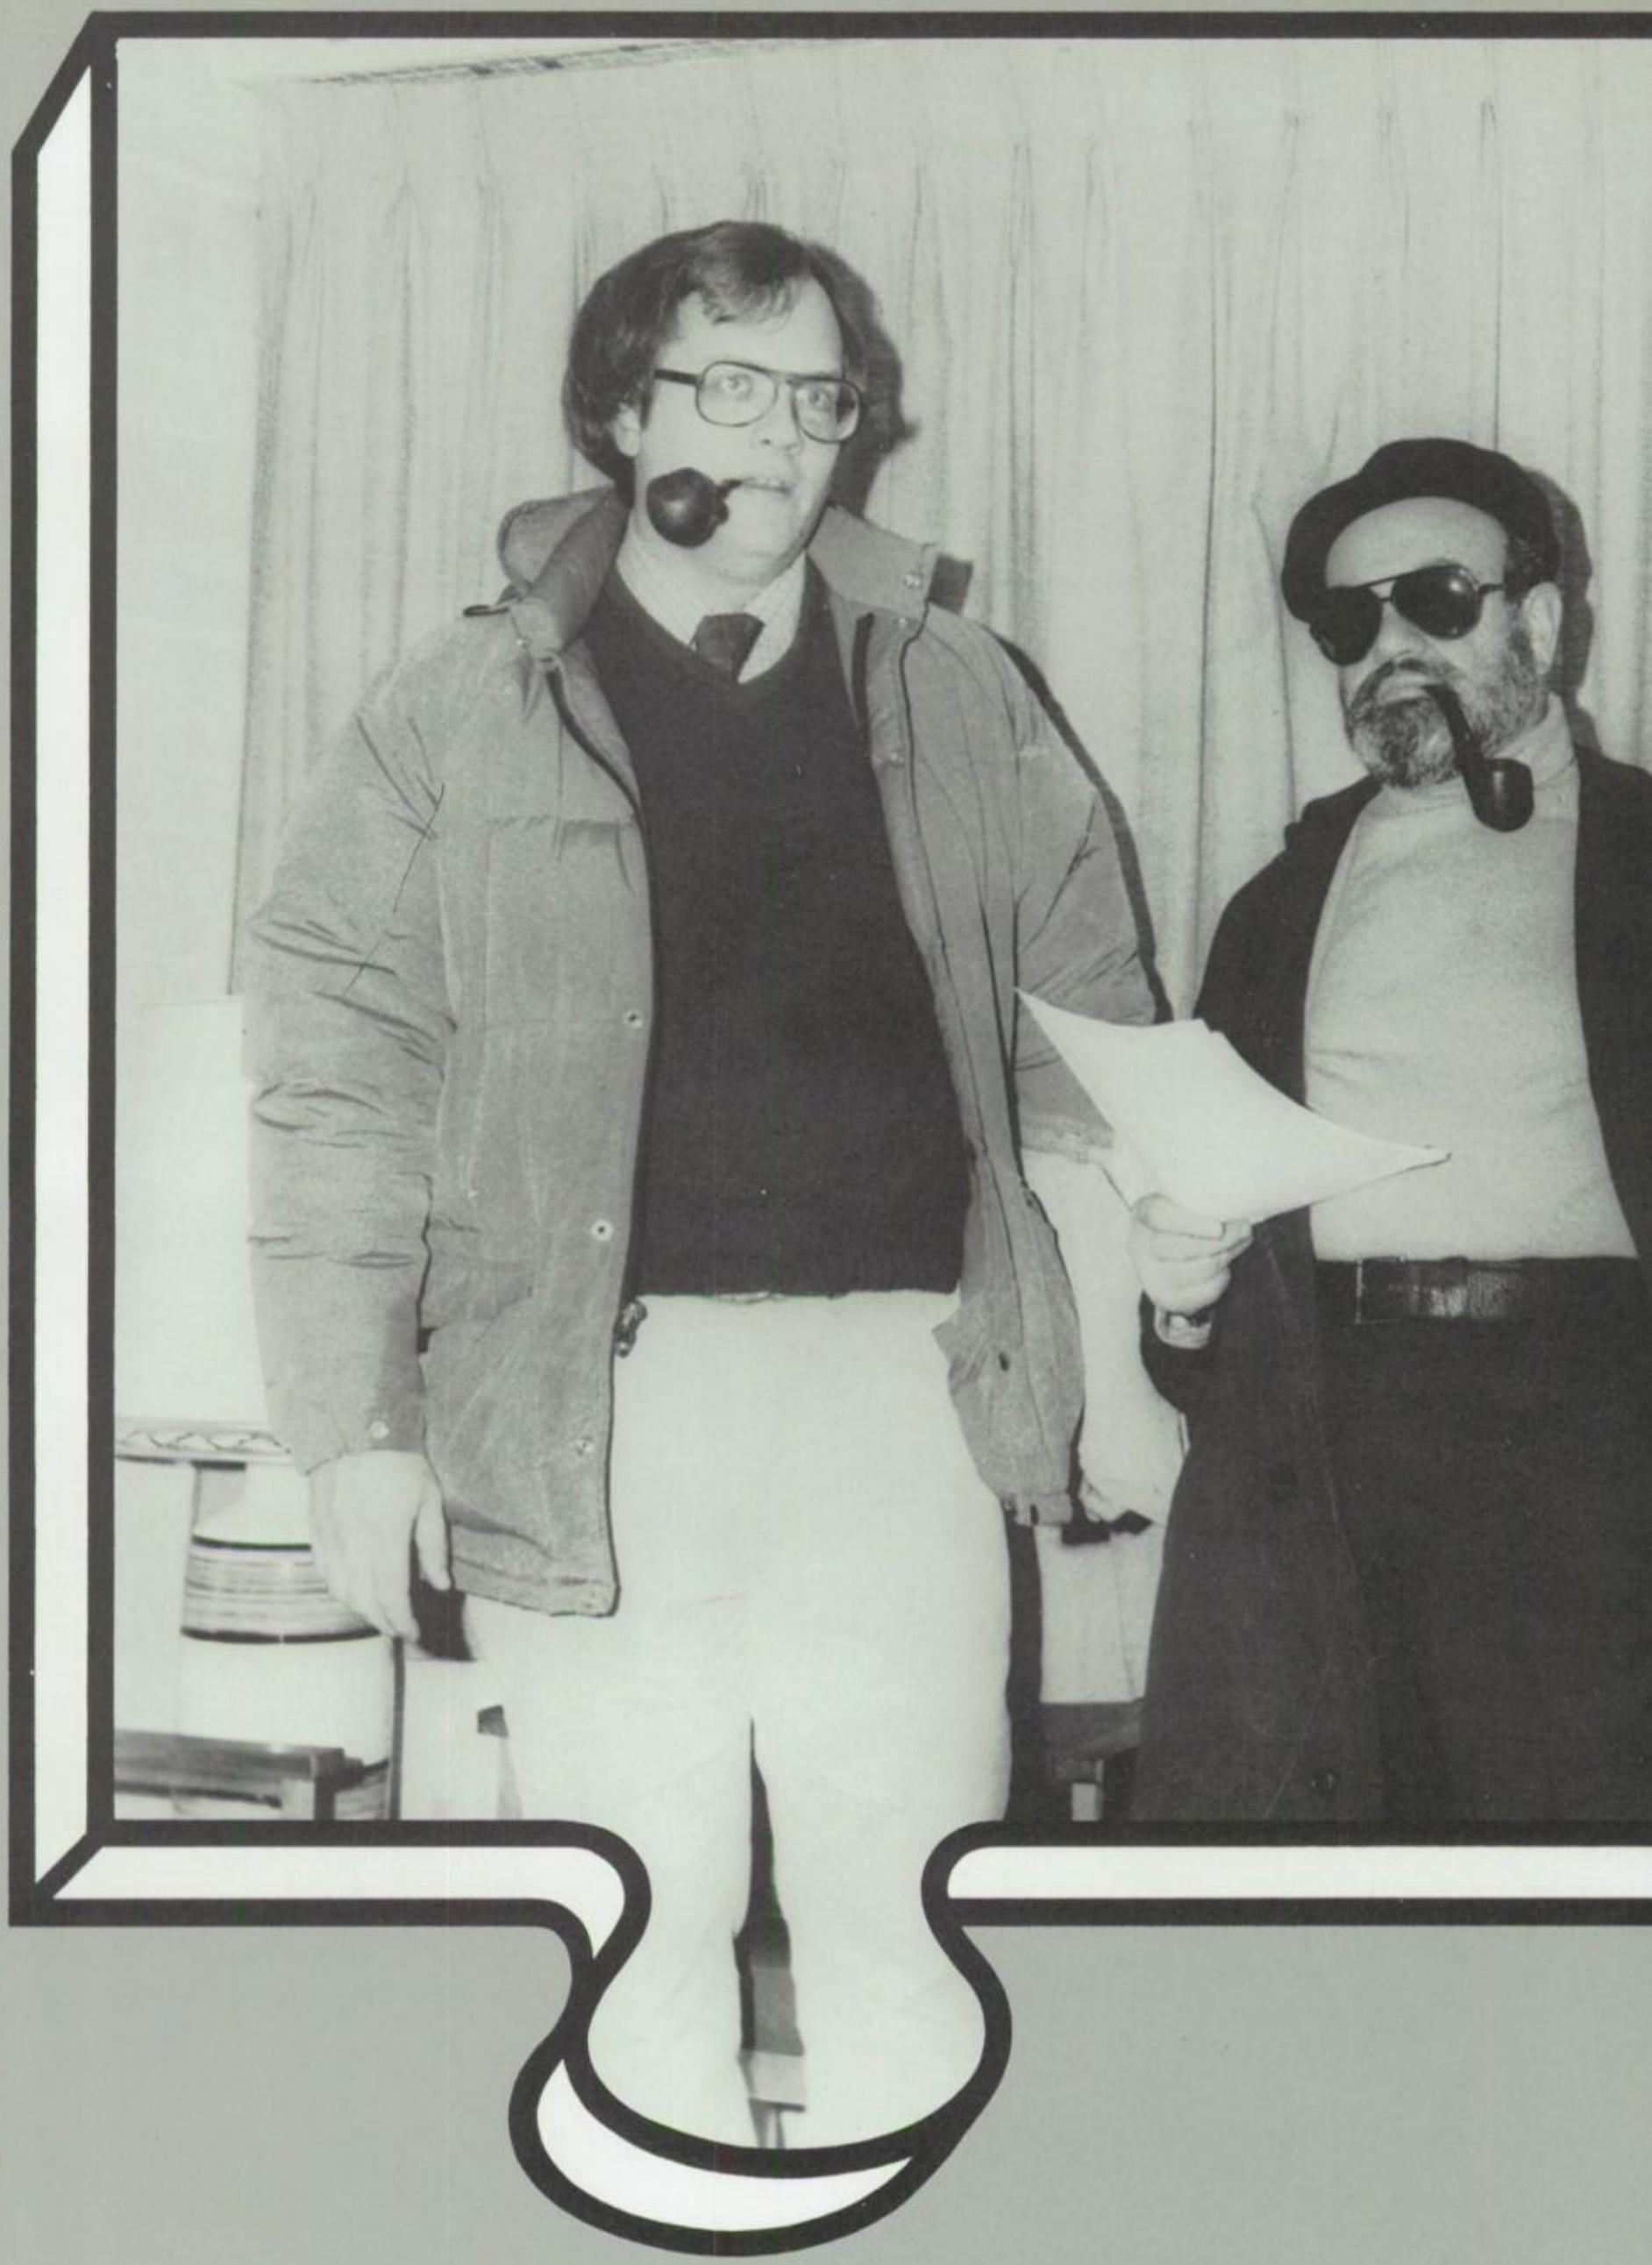
Persistence Pays Off, Rewarding Effort With Triumphs







Faculty: "...the body of persons to whom are entrusted the government and instruction of a university or school." Definitions are always shallow and often cold. Never mentioned are the human elements, the devotion, and the caring. But no parts are more integral to teaching—or to learning, and no parts make the picture more complete. Together, the students and the faculty become "family," bound by loyalty, devotion, and community spirit. The faculty is more than a body of persons, it is a shaper of human beings, and there is nothing in this world more valuable than that final human product.

FACULTY

School Functions Well Under Fine Front Office Staff

The Brother Rice Faculty has always been more than just a group of instructors. They have illustrated over and over again that their job as teachers doesn't end with the school day. Many of them are involved with the intramural programs while still others act as moderators for different organizations. The faculty at Rice are important not only because they are responsible for our education, but also because they serve to mold us during our four years here at Rice.

As in any group, they are diversified yet at the same time have a quality of unity about them. Each member lends to the school his special ability and through this sort of giving the experience which we call Brother Rice emerges. This year, the talents of several new faculty members were added to our group. These included Br. Lindeman in the Math and Drafting departments, Br. Keane, Br. Casey, and Mrs. Michalski in the English department, Br. Martin in the Science department, and Mr. Zarzicki and Sr. Maria Theresa in the Music department. These members were quickly integrated in the Rice family and became instrumental in strengthening the Rice spirit: That the individuality of the member lends quality to the whole.

Brothers' Community Life

Education is more than simply sitting in a classroom. It is a complete learning experience. To become a total human being, one must fully develop the ability to interact with others. This is a life-long process. We continually seek ways of sharing ourselves by participating in our ever-expanding world. Activities, organizations, and sporting events prove to be the foundations upon which friendships are built. Often, little else seems as important. Graduation may end this season or that, but friendships will last forever. Time will erase many memories, but it will hopefully have little affect upon the nostalgic pleasures we call "student life".

Organization Proves Key to Grid Success

The intramural League at Rice has evolved into a very organized and participated event in the last three years. Under the management of Br. Herron and Br. Segvich over forty percent of the school's population is able to become involved in intramural football, volleyball, basketball, bowling, racquetball, and hockey to experience the thrill of victory and the agony of personal fouls. Bowling, the longest running and the most participated intramural sport, still involves close to 120 players every week, the winners receiving excellent trophies in the spring. Football has nearly all the action of a Cincinnati game and has some of the most original team names in any sport. I-M Volleyball's traditional wimpy atmosphere is totally lost in the sweat and spikes piercing the net from any and all directions. Basketball, racquetball, and hockey also contain many teams and excellent programs.

Rice - Marian Weekend Scores With Students

Rice-Marian Weekend 1980 was, traditionally, successful. The weekend began on Thursday with the Quiz'em and the controversial Dating Game, both well attended. Friday had students from the schools in the Rice gym with the showing of the double creature-feature "The Creature from the Black Lagoon", in 3-D, and Mel Brooks' "Young Frankenstien". Saturday brought The Battle of the Bands in which the guitar-smashing band Echoes came out on top with the $250 first prize. Rice-Marian Weekend concluded on Sunday with the Talent Show. Despite a close challenge by John Birchler and his impersonations of Niel Young and Bob Dylan, Rice Seniors Chris McKenna and Dennis O'Hare with Marian Senior Theresa McAllister gained top honors with their rendition of Crosby, Stills, and Nash's "Suite: Judy Blue Eyes".

Over the years, Rice-Marian Weekend has become one of the most important events of the school year. This year was no exception. The student councils of both schools, and in particular John Malley, are to be congratulated for their fine work which made the 1980 Rice-Marian Weekend as profitable and entertaining as it was.

Go back to Sunday, October seventh. What an exciting day it was! (Winning isn't everything . . .)

At 2:30 the opening kick-off of Boy's Bowl '79 was received by Brian Brennan. A few seconds later he was out of the game with a shoulder injury. Sophomore quarterback Dave Yarema came fresh off the bench and led the Warriors to a well earned 7-0 halftime lead.

Halftime festivities included a show by the band and the traditional parade of the floats and the Homecoming Court. The senior float took top honors for the third straight year, followed by the juniors! (Better luck next year sophs and freshmen.) A dragster and the words "Rice Races To Victory" won it for the seniors. Homecoming Queen Cathy Heusgan and her court followed the floats.

Catholic Central scored in the second half and sent the game into overtime. They scored on their opportunity, we didn't! C.C. won the game 10-7.

By this time it was 5:30 and students had to hurry home to get ready for the Homecoming Dance at 8:30.(Dinner at a restaurant first.) Bill Cowden was the chairman of the dance, which held in the banquet room of the Pontiac Silverdome. Few, if any, sat through the songs of the band "Sandcastle".

Nobody at the game, or the dance, will quickly forget that Sunday in October.

Volleyball Finals Decide Senior Victory

Field Day '79, making known its long standing tradition of generating interclass rivalry, proved once again to be its usual success. Continuing their dominance of the spirit and athletic events, the Seniors fought off a strong Junior challenge to capture the title of the yearly event. Field Day Chairman Joe Cruitt and assistant Dave Slocum worked long hours in an effort to provide the general excellence that has characterized Field Day in the past.

Comic relief was once again provided by the class skits. Clever characterizations of faculty on the part of the Juniors captured both the crowd's and more importantly the judging staff's acclamation as they took the event. The Sophomores were gifted with second place as they made use of the popular Alien theme and excellent faculty impersonations as a basis for their skit. The Seniors received third with a misinterpreted Rocky Horror theme combined with a live band and the "Time Warp." The Freshmen followed using class participation and our school song to show the school its spirit.

The outdoor events proved to be a drill in coordination as well as skill as the field became very muddy. The Track and Field events were hindered by the weather, but continued none the less. The Chariot Racė was taken by the Frosh as all other opposition failed to make it to the finish line. The Seniors did beat out the Juniors by a slim margin, proving to all once again the invincibility of Class of '80.

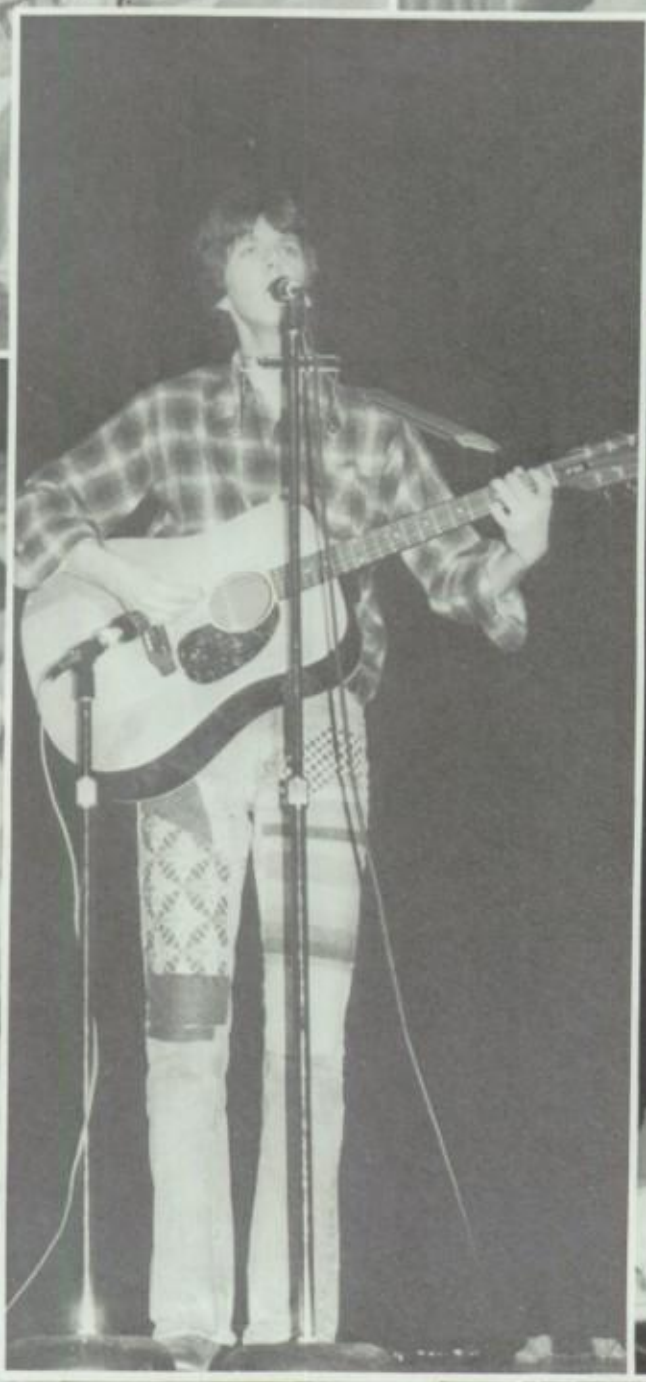
M.U.N. Fosters Political Development

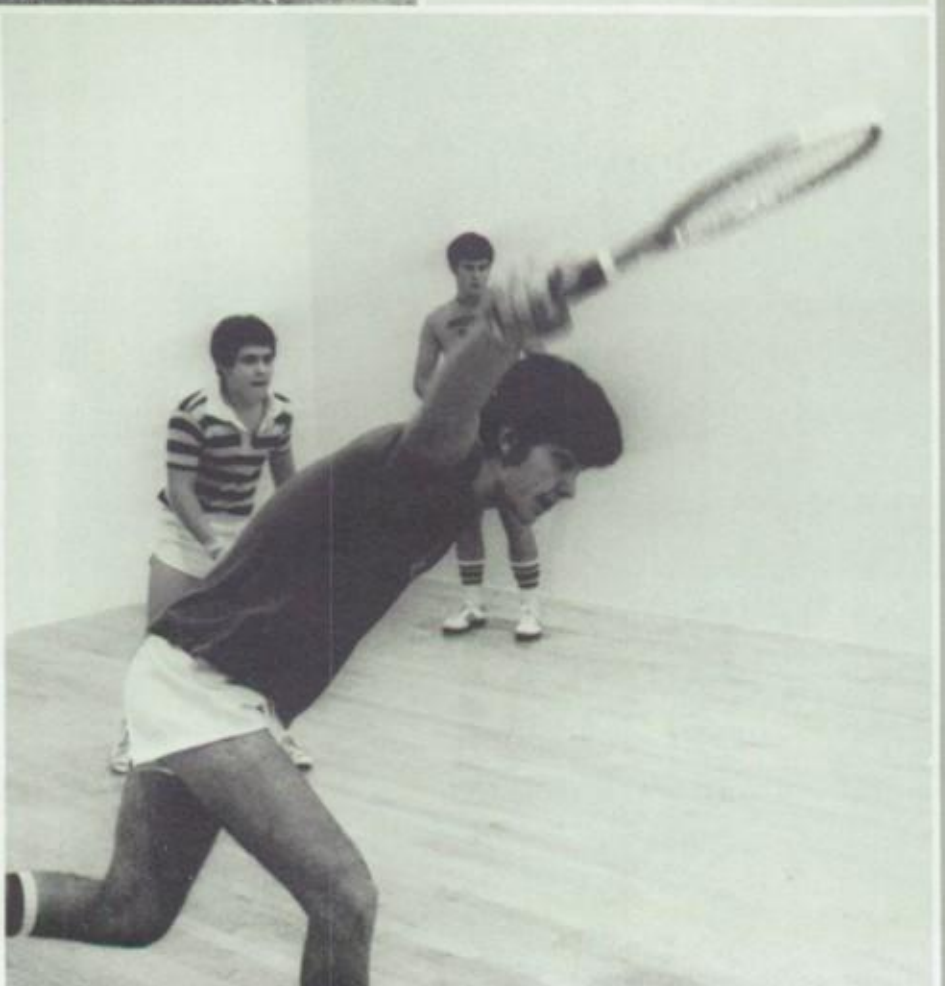
The 1979 version of the RICE-MARIAN Model United Nations proved to be an exciting and fulfilling affair for all involved. Many hours of hard work were put in by Chairpersons Bob Carey, Maureen Smith, and Mary Mervenne.

As usual, Rice copped most of the major awards including the Major Delegation Award and the Minor Delegation Award. The major delegation of France was composed of Brian Parks, Tim Noonan, Dave Slocum, and Steve Abowd. The minor delegation contained Pat Dessert, Tony Simonelli, Marie Miranda, and Mary Ann Baihle.

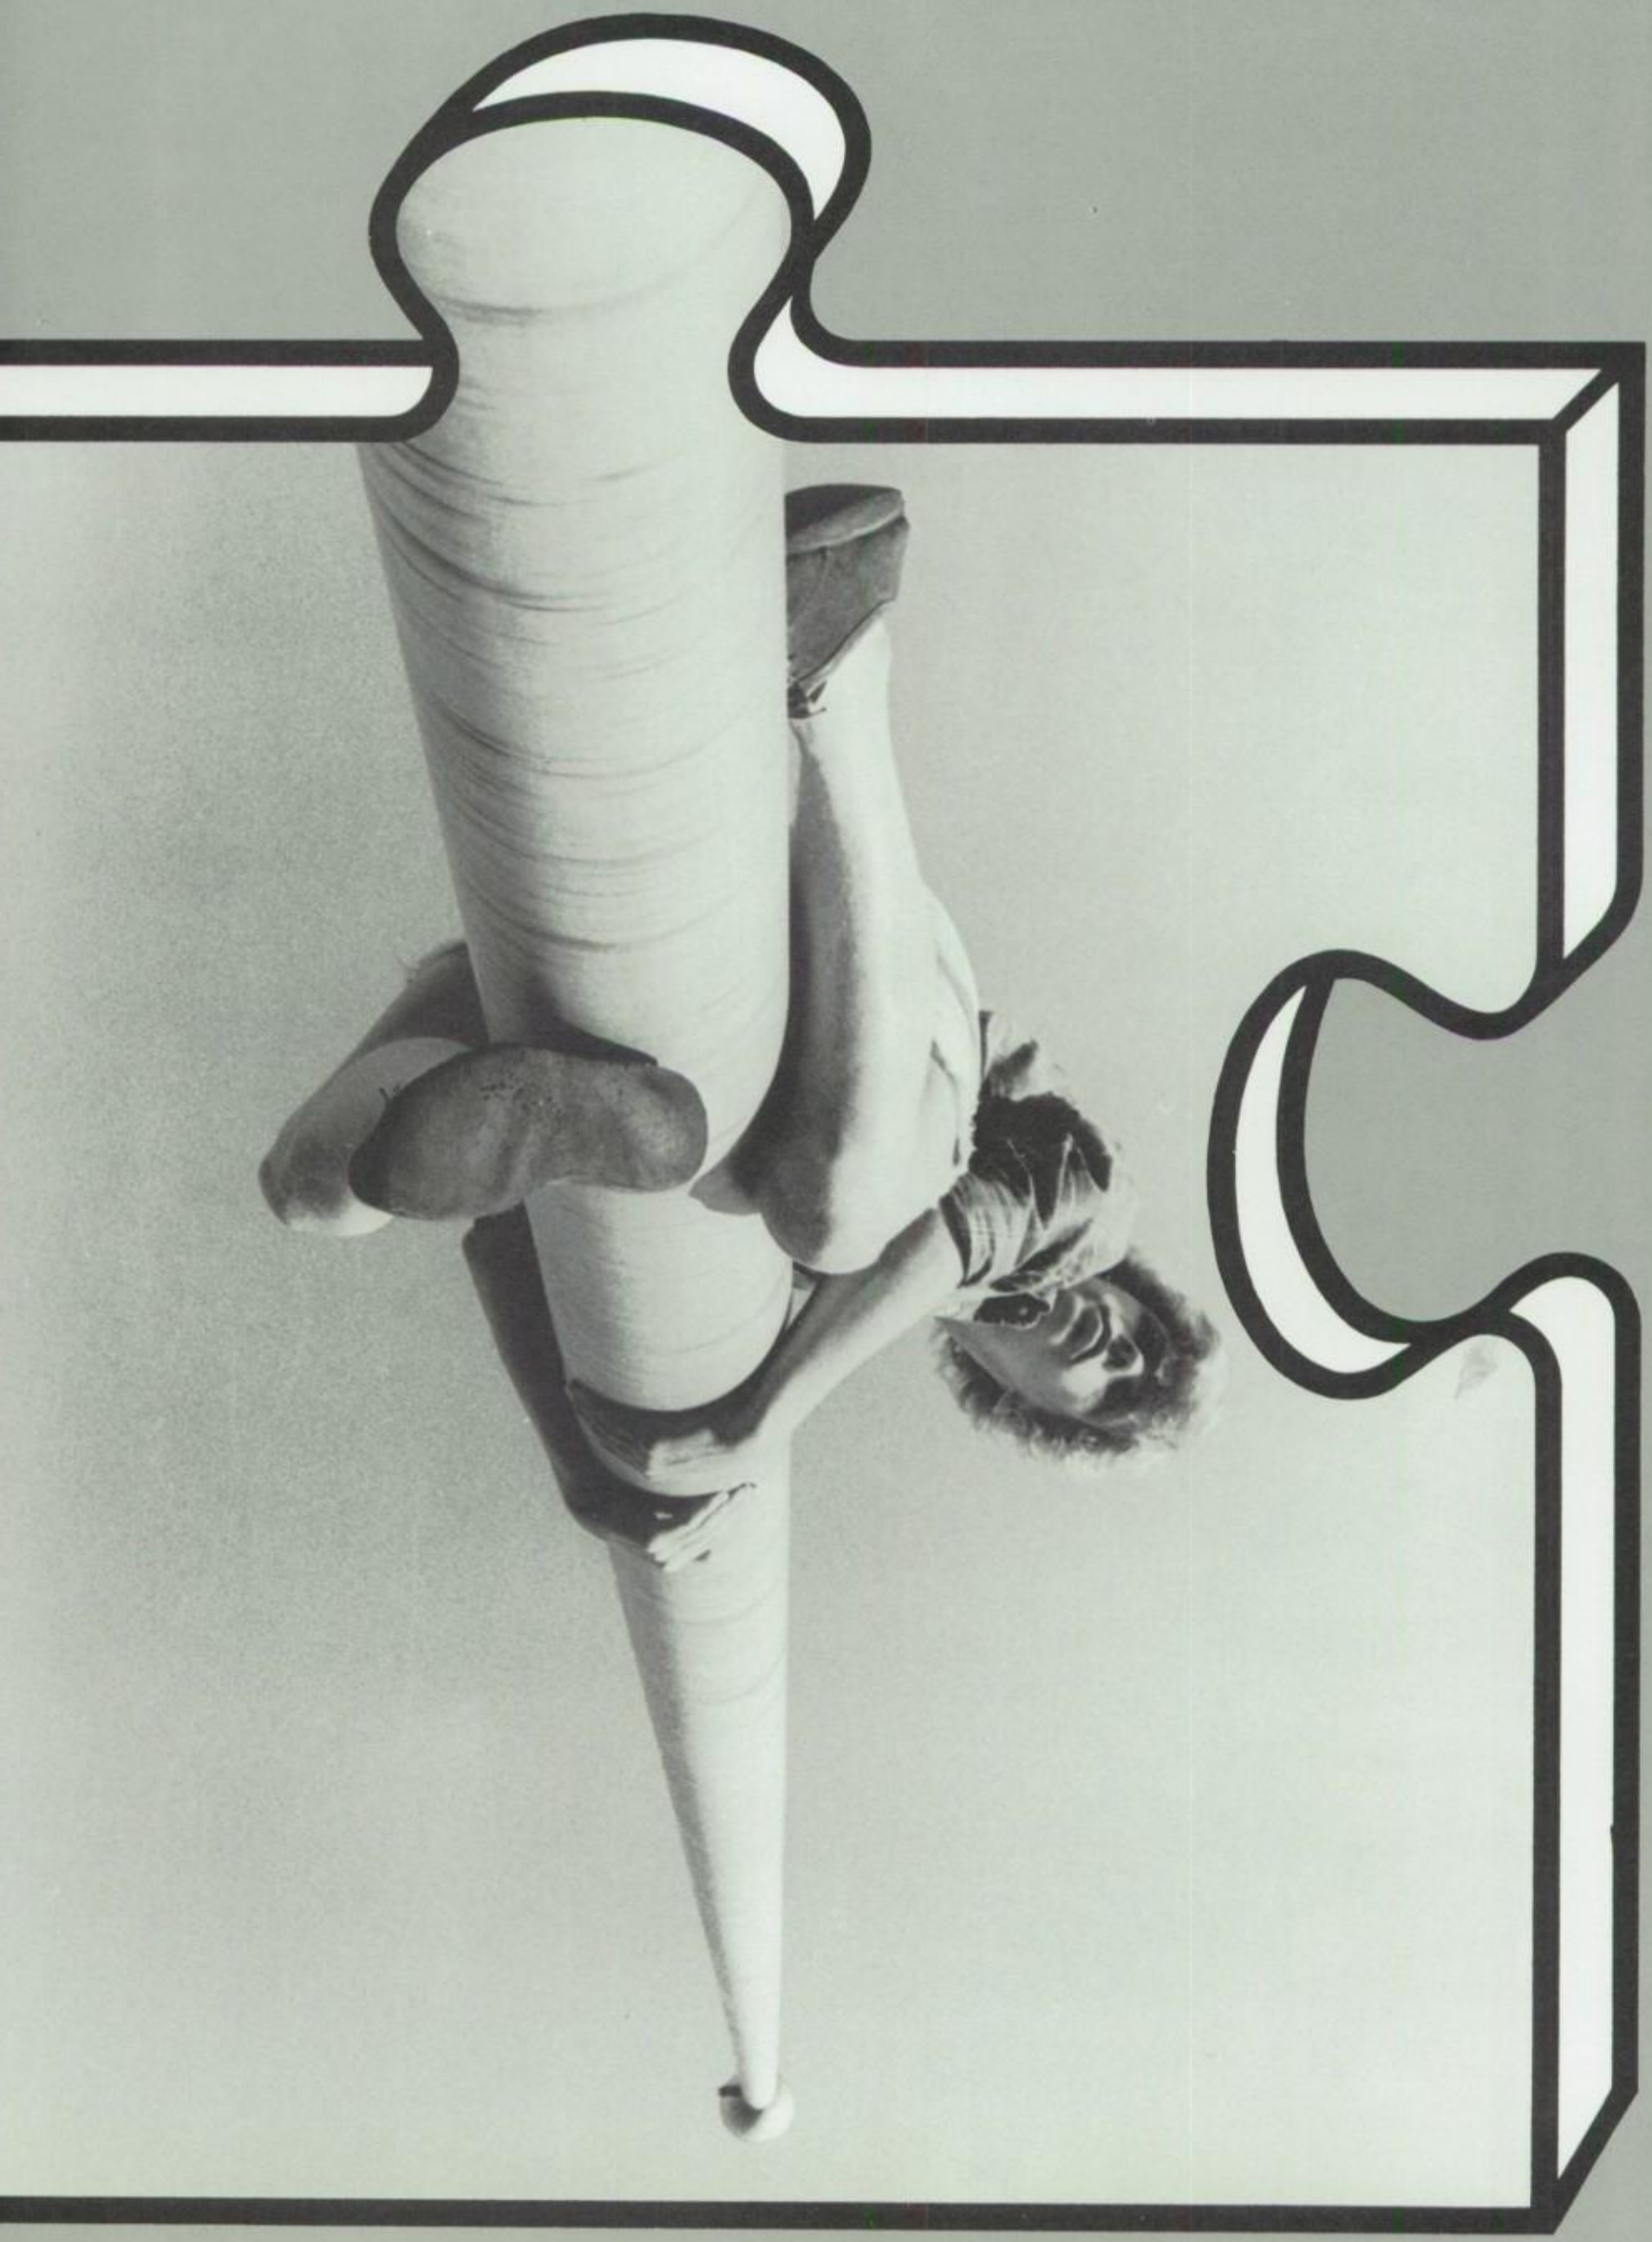
Hundreds of delegates from fourteen high schools gathered to discuss such issues as disarmament, apartheid, economics, and law of the sea. An enthusiastic Brother Kelley served as judge and Rice moderator.

The top seven delegates and Bob Carey traveled to Washington, D.C. in February and skillfully directed the delegation of Canada to national prominence at the North American Invitational Model United Nations.





STUDENT LIFE



High school is a growth process. It is a series of events which slowly form the character of an individual. Each year brings change, some good, some bad, but ultimately toward a greater end. For those in the midst of this process, the underclassmen, the passing of each seemingly innocent day develops the individual further. The underclass is the largest part of the school, the largest piece in the picture. It is with them that the future of the school lies. It is in their potential that so much is promised, and in their future that so much is hoped.

Class of '83 Starts Off Well in Greatly Spirited Initial Year

When the members of the Class of 1983 walked quietly into their first class in the heat of August in 1979, most of them faced fear and uncertainty about what lay ahead, both in the day and in their four years at Brother Rice.

Now, with their first year completed, we can see what stuff these men are made of. Under the moderation of another newcomer, Brother Daniel Casey, the Class of '83 got off to an energetic start with Frosh Fun Night where the freshmen yelled, screamed spirited cheers and, ah . . . generally carried on. The unity of the class was revealed to the rest of the school when Field Day rolled around. Though the freshmen placed an unsurprising traditional fourth place, the class did display their mettle in several events, most prominently in the Tug-of-War, where the Freshmen gave the Seniors a few worried moments. Despite their ultimate loss, it was clear to everyone, the Class of '83 had arrived.

In the period of a year the freshmen have learned most of the tricks of the trade—how to run a class and maybe even make some money doing it. Most obvious of these pursuits was the freshman-sponsored dance which taught the class both the perils and benefits of free enterprise. With this experience under their belts, the class of 1983 can expect to become more proficient in the following years.

As the years progress, the Class of 1983 promises to become one of the greatest classes in Rice history. Three years from now we'll know for sure.

Sophomores Locate Their Niche Among Spirited Warriors

As the fall of 1979 rolled around, the Class of 1982 was already off and running. Pulling together after their freshman year, the united class made a strong showing at Field Day, and placed second to the seniors with their imaginative Homecoming float. The class's 1979-80 fund raising magazine drive was once again a big success, making the class independently wealthy. The student involvement of the class this past year was outstanding. The sophomores had a hand in virtually everything that occurred, thanks to the large number of unique hard-working individuals.

Retreats and elections were a few of the motivating forces behind this spirited young class. As the class matured, it became apparent that people began to start thinking for themselves. The Class of '82's immense determination and will to work hard were realized in its many adventurous projects.

The Sophomores are now, for better or for worse, half way through their Brother Rice careers, and most now have a realistic opinion about out school and what it stands for. The Class of '82's remaining years will undoubtedly reiterate those values. They are all important, and none should be forgotten.

When the fall of 1980 rolls around, the members of the Class of 1982 will be upperclassmen, with all that being upperclassmen entails, setting an example for the underclassmen and looking forward to their own futures. May they be as successful in the years ahead as they were in the years gone by.

Junior's Successes Provide An Example For the Entire School

The members of the Class of 1981 are one year closer, one year closer to being what they have wanted to be for three years: a Brother Rice Senior. They're probably ready for it, and their record is outstanding.

The Class of 1981 started the year with an impressive showing at Field Day. Winning first place in many events, including the skit and the class banner, the united Juniors lost to the Seniors by only a few points in the last event, the volleyball game.

In association with the Student Council, the Junior Class produced the most successful Brother Rice Directory to date, the 1979-80 edition, which was distributed to the student body. This and many other accomplishments demonstrated the great spirit and dedication of the Class of '81 in all aspects of student government.

The class' strong and consistently positive attitude was clearly evident in nearly all Rice activities, from Varsity Football through Model U.N. to the Chieftain. The Juniors, in some areas, even matched the participation of the Seniors.

The Juniors' productive year made it obvious that, in the following fall, they would be more than capable of leading the school as Brother Rice Seniors. If they are as successful as it looks like they will be, if each member lets his own talents surface and flourish, then the Class of 1981 will not only be able to lead Brother Rice, but make it great.

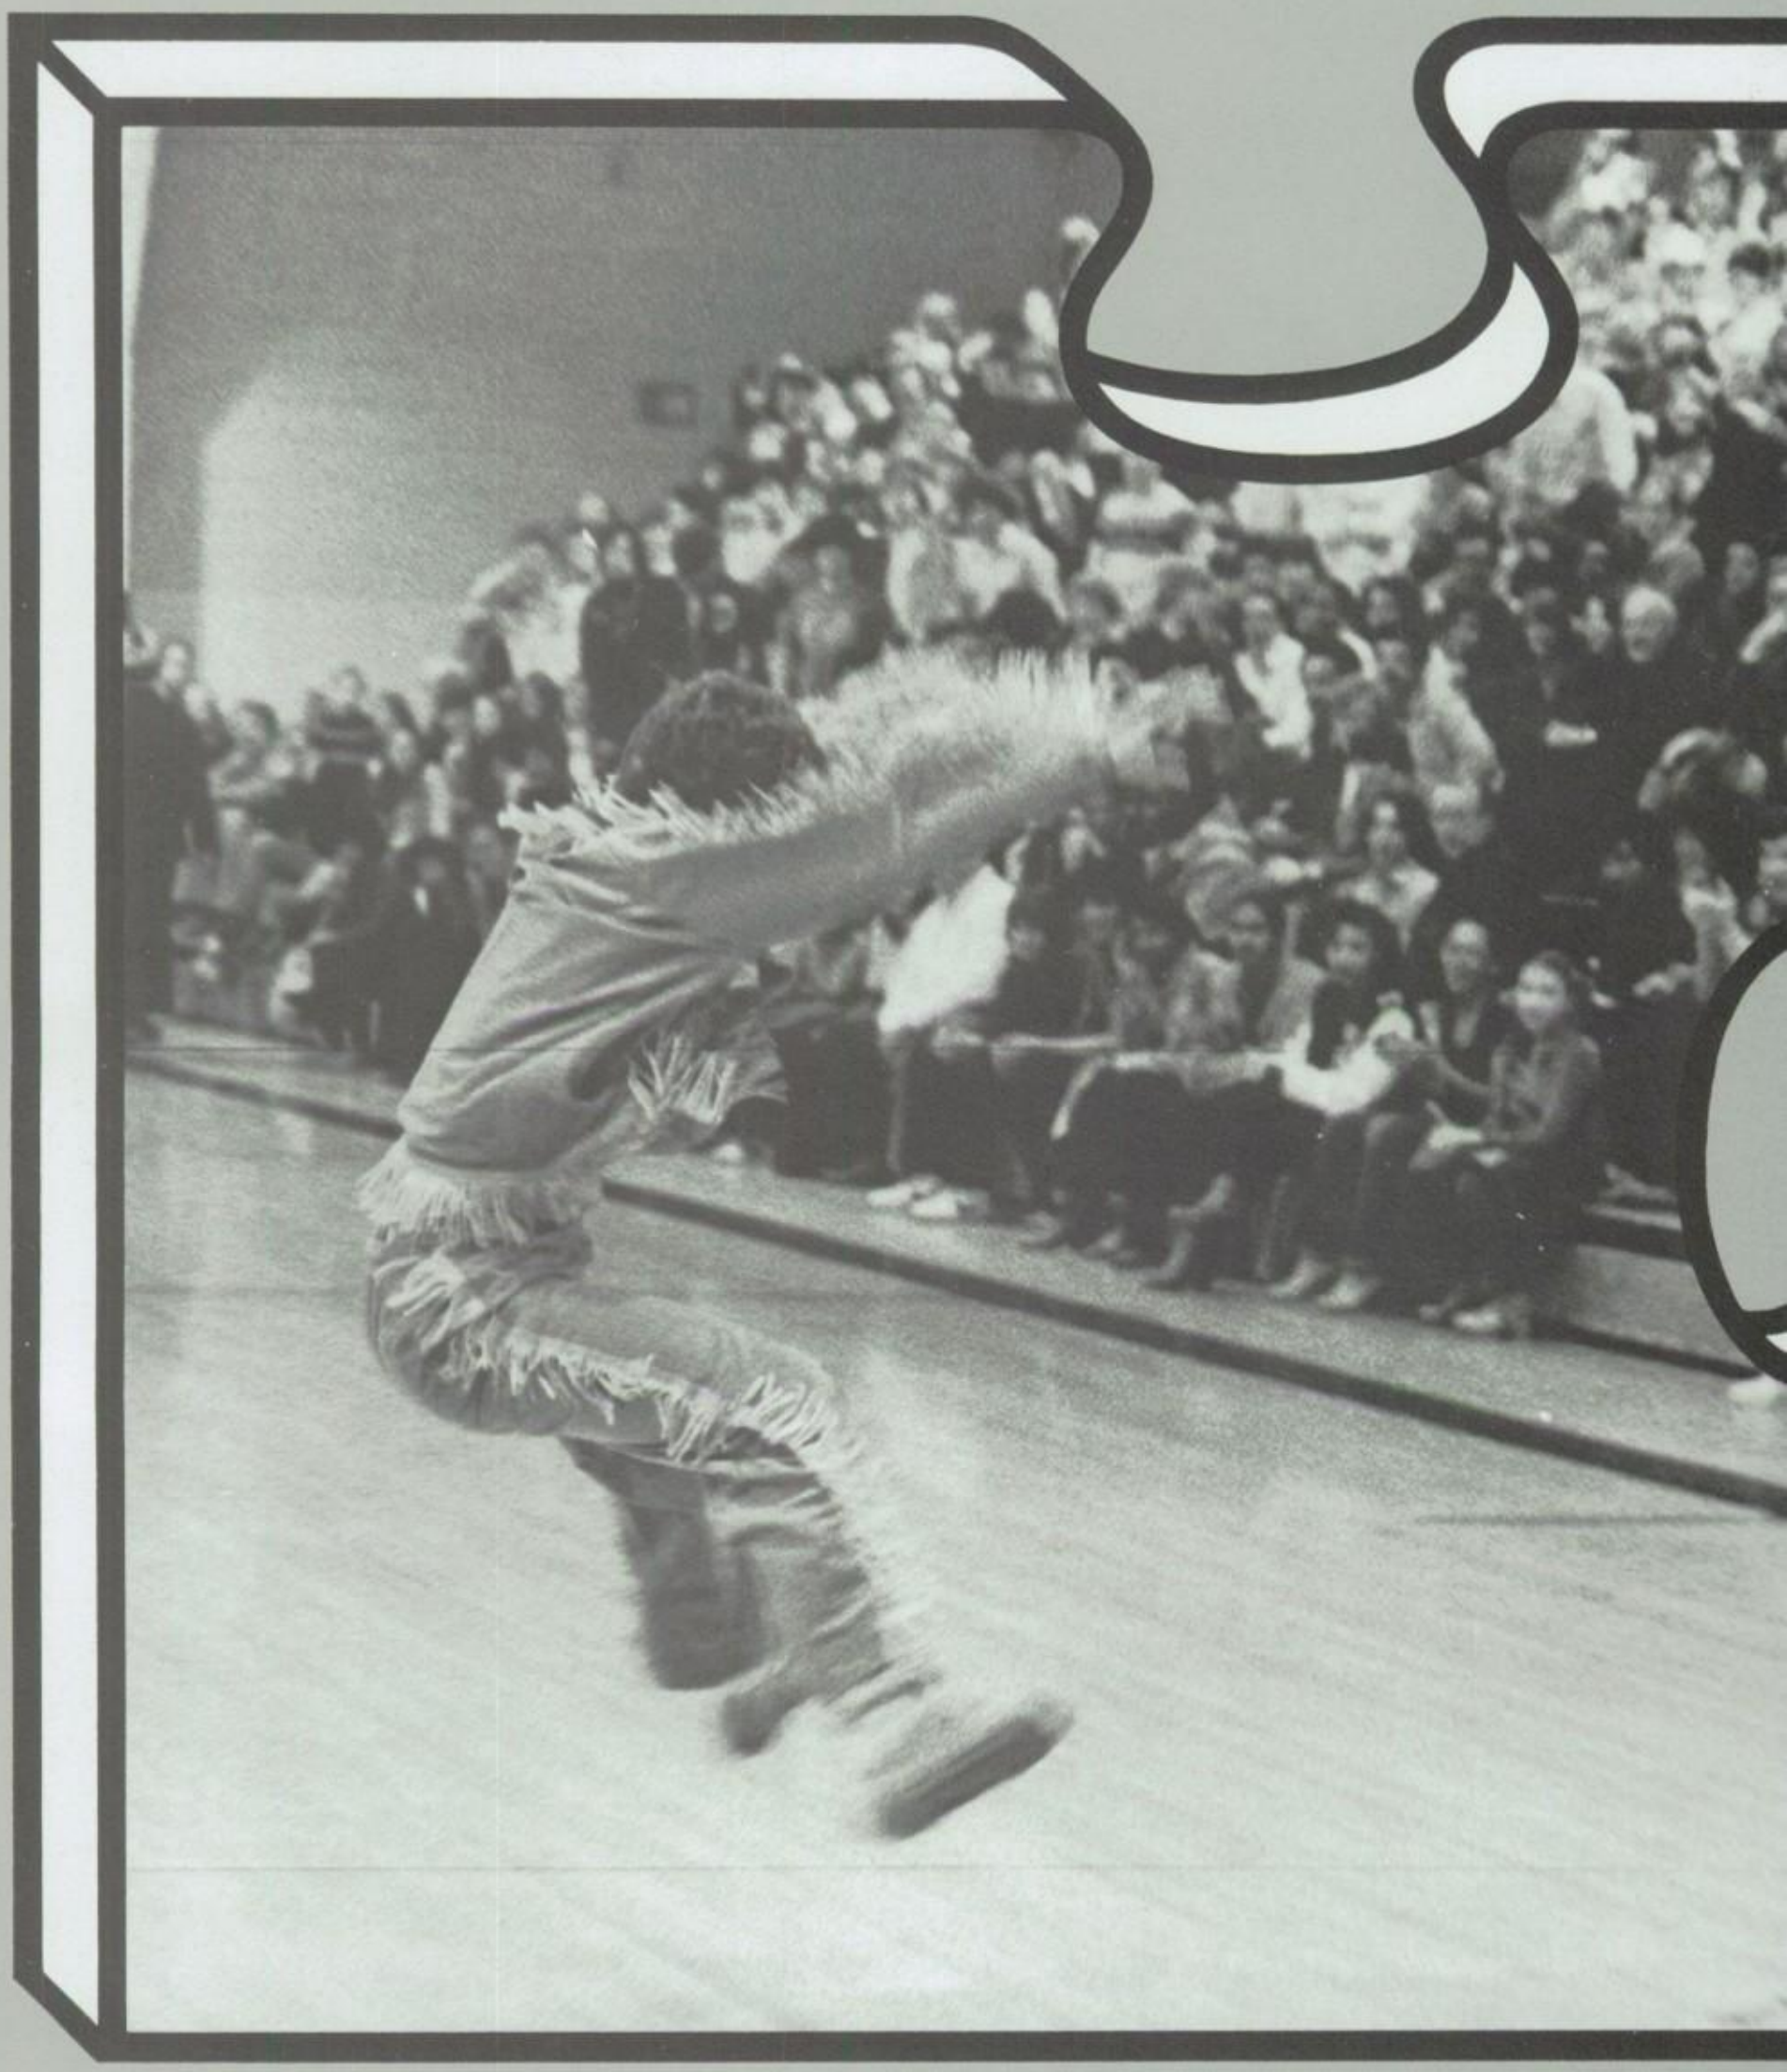
UNDERCLASS



Student involvement is the key to the success of any high school. Only with student participation can a school attain that necessary community spirit. Both the school and the student benefit when an individual takes the time and interest to do something to help those around him. Whether his participation be in Choral, the N.H.S. the Student Council, or any club or organization, his membership is at least an effort to contribute to his immediate world. Beyond providing pleasurable pastimes, clubs provide their members, the students, with experience. A person can never be over prepared for the future, and if he can prepare for the future while enjoying today, so much the better.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Determination is Council's Key Word

Not only was the 1979-80 Student Council at Brother Rice one of the most active, it was undoubtedly the most successful. A group of over fifty students, the largest group in Rice's history, discussed and planned most of the activities that were taken for granted by the majority of the student body.

President John McGowan directed the meetings, and treasurer Joe Cruitt kept track of the council's finances. Secretary Mark Perna managed to keep track of everything else. Brother Robert Koppes was the faculty moderator.

Often asked was the question, "Just what does the Student Council do?" An easy answer is to list the primary activities and their chairmen, so: Frosh Fun Night (Tom Sugrue); Homecoming (Bill Cowden); Food Drive (Marty Nagle); Pop Machine (Larry Riesing); Rice-Marian Weekend (John Malley); Blood Drive (Joe Bars); Elections (Steve Abowd); Student Phone Directory (Pat Carey); Interschool Calendar (Steve Doyle); Pep Club (Bob Carey); Intramurals (Tim Girardot); Field Day (Joe Cruitt); and Scrapbook (Dave Slocum). It can honestly be said that each activity was a splendid success. The determination of the 1979-80 Student Council really "paid off"!

N.H.S. Performs Variety of Duties

"Active" is the word to describe the 1979-80 Chapter of the National Honor Society. Under the leadership and effort of moderator Br. Anthony Cannon, senior president David Wilson, and junior vice-president Lawrence Leszczynski, the N.H.S. undertook a great number of assignments.

In December, the N.H.S. quite successfully sponsored a Christmas tree sale in support of the Christian Brothers' Novitiate. The sale produced a revenue of approximately $3,300. All throughout the school year, the N.H.S. helped out with school tours, the Irish Nite Auction, the Mothers' St. Patrick's Day Luncheon, and a "host of other hosting duties."

But the most important function of the Society was the tutoring program. Almost from the start of the year, there was an overwhelming demand for tutors, and the N.H.S. effectively met the demand in an effort to aid struggling students.

The 1979-80 St. Thomas Aquinas chapter of the N.H.S. played an integral part in serving the Brother Rice community.

"Sure Bet" Hit With Musical Guys & Dolls

What do gamblers, showgirls, and missionaries have in common? Guys & Dolls, the musical story of how love conquered Sarah Brown's hard-heart, the "confirmed bachelor" Sky Masterson, Miss Adelaide's constant cold, and Nathan Detroit's gambling craze, brought them all together when the Rice-Marian Players performed that story as their 1980 spring musical. With its singing and dancing, Guys & Dolls was both entertaining to watch, and exciting to be a part of.

The production staff of Guys & Dolls was under the direction of Brother Daniel Casey, C.F.C., in his first year at Brother Rice. Also new this year was the producer, Luise Smela, and the choral director, Sr. Maria Theresa Magrie, I.H.M. Guys & Dolls was the third Rice- Marian production that Nancy Mullkoff has choreographed. Jeff Burt assisted with the directing, Cathy Conway tackled the costumes, and Shelly O'Conner did an excellent job with the make-up and the scenery.

For the past three years, in Jesus Christ Superstar, Man of La Mancha, The Mikado, and now Guys & Dolls, the class of 1980 has really been a dominant force. Hopefully, their expertise as characters on the stage, and the fine examples they gave off of it, will be continued by future Rice-Marian players. Good Luck... guys and dolls!!!

Band Rebuilds: New Directors & Underclassmen

"Rebuilding" is the word to describe the 1979-80 Concert and Marching Band. New this year was the band's director, Mr. Zarzycki, as well as the band's moderator, Br. P. B. Martin. Also new was most of the band, because of the small upperclass participation. (Andy Baker, Joe Cruitt, John Gach, and Bob Trotter were the only participating seniors.) But a strong underclass pulled together fast enough to take top honors in the Franklin Labor Day Parade. The band also performed splendidly in the Boy's Bowl game, held in October.

April rolled around and hence came the groups annual spring concert. In one short school year, they really put themselves together, giving one of the finest concerts Ricers have heard in a long time. Congratulations!!!

Pep Band's Enthusiasm is Evident!!

The enthusiastic Pep Band could be found at every home football and basketball game playing, cheering, and generally supporting the two athletic teams. The loyal group even attended some of Rice's away games, most noteably the football team's challenge against Cincinatti Moeller.

Senior Joe Cruitt both organized the group and played saxaphone in it. His freshman brother, Jerry, dazzled the crowds with his talented and energetic drumming.

Missing, however, was the Jazz Band, which in past years had played at games, concerts, and sometimes even the Talent Show! But with a new band director it can be difficult to resume everything. (Hopefully, the group can get back on its feet again, for they certainly have the ability here at Rice!)

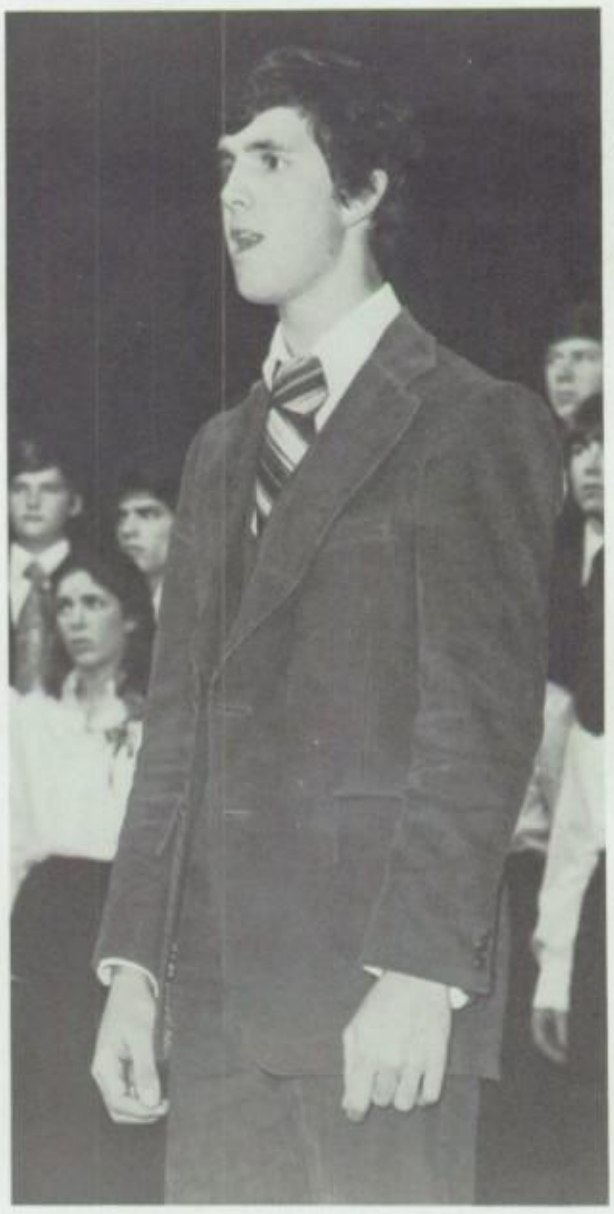
Madrigals and Chambers Always Living in Harmony

Madrigal and Chamber Singers

The extracurricular music program at Rice-Marian was expanded in 1979-80. Added to the Madrigal Singers were the Chamber Singers, a group of about 35 students with an interest in Choral singing. Both groups met every Monday night, the Madrigals for an hour and the Chambers for an hour and a half.

The Madrigals, consisting of 15 members, once again exhibited superior talent and artistic ability while performing at the Christmas and Spring concerts. The group was composed of individuals who were asked by director Sr. Maria to be in the small, elite choir.

The Chamber Singers were open to anyone who wanted to join. The main reason for this group was to allow those students who couldn't fit Choral into their school schedule a chance to perform in a choir. Most of the group's membership, however, came from choral members who didn't get enough singing in class!



OPPOSITE PAGE: Top, The 1979-80 PEP BAND, consisting of Joe Cruitt, Vinny DePorre, Leonard Trotta, Pete Lopez, John Coffee, Paul Marquis, Little Joe Roesch, Pete Andrick, Mickey Brown, Keith Montone, and Bill Sheehan, fires-up a basketball game crowd. Energetic Choral Groups Give Their Gift of Music

The Rice-Marian Choral program was headed by a new director in 1979-80, Sr. Maria Theresa Magrie. Sr. Maria immediately went to work bolstering the music program; instituting the Madrigals and Chamber singers, arranging private and group lessons in voice, guitar, piano, and organ, and increasing the size of the Concert and Beginning Choirs.

The Concert Choir was the most active of the four groups, singing at the Harper Hospital Rehabilitation Institute, Tel-Twelve Mall, Br. King's 60th Jubillee mass, and the Christmas and Spring Concerts. This advanced group performed many difficult pieces, including Buxtehude's cantata Rejoice Earth and Heaven, Marie Pooler's arrangement of the Shaker melody Simple Gifts, and G.F. Handel's Thanks Be To Thee, and Forever Blest Is He. The group received excellent reviews all year long for their performances.

The Beginning Choir, having increased in size over the past few years, laid a strong base for continuing the fine standards set by the more advanced group.

Sr. Maria gave the students many opportunities to expand their musical horizons, including solo, accompaniest, and conducting opportunities. Thanks to the dedication of Sr. Maria and her students, the music program flourished during the 1979-80 school year.

Creativity Outpours From Minds of Inventive Young Quest Journalists

A period of change marked the commencement of work on the 1980 Quest. After five years under the direction of Br. William A. Dogan, the staff received a new moderator, Br. James Keane. Br. Keane was greeted with an unusual problem. The original printer's deadlines given to the staff had to be replaced because over one quarter of the book was due to be finished by mid-November! This was highly unreasonable but a new set was worked out with little difficulty, and proved to be more beneficial to the reporting of the year's events.

Br. Keane arrived from Hawaii with high expectations for his first year of guiding the Quest. Four returning staff members lead a talented group of newcomers in laying out, designing, and piecing together the parts which would form the history of the 1979-80 Brother Rice school year. Finding the time to dedicate to the yearbook was difficult for the members of the staff but they were able to work around their many other school involvements, spending countless afternoons and evenings in the close quarters of the Quest room. Another obstacle was the lack of a full-time photographer but the contributions of each member helped to overcome this unnoticeable deficit.

General unity and a spirit of helpfulness marked this year's staff, each man giving any extra time to the benefit of another. This staff brought the occurrences of the 1979-80 year into one total, encompassing volume of memories to be shared for years to come.

The 1979-80 Chieftain Established the Trends For Successors to Copy

The 1979-80 Chieftain became one of the most popular papers in the history of the school. People read it instead of flying it!

The success of any newspaper is determined by the staff, and The Chieftain had an excellent one. Editor Tom Sugrue did a fine job and was always willing to accept other's suggestions. Moderator Mr. Gagnon always offered his assistance to the staff, and managed to get the paper out on its limited budget.

The associate editors of The Chieftain did an excellent job also. Mike Kitz and Mike Schmidt put together a concise sports page. Fortunately they didn't try to make news out of old football games! David Raffo covered the news and Feature Editor Mike Neus covered whatever wasn't classified as news. The opinions of Brian Parks were often controversial and always well-expressed. Larry Leszczynski put together the layouts, working well with Mike Lord's graphics and the photography of Bill Cowden and Marty Sarafa.

The 1979-80 Chieftain set the standard for future comparison.

Extra Science Courses Stimulate Student's Minds

The Directed Studies in Science program was founded four years ago at Rice. It allows students the opportunity to take courses that are not offered in the regular school curriculum. The courses available this year were Organic Chemistry, Spectrophotometry, and Electronics.

Organic Chemistry met every Wednesday night. Dr. John Gerlock, a PhD at Ford, covered topics including distillations, recrystalizations, and compound nomenclature.

Students in Spectrophotometry learned how to identify components of a solution with the help of a spectrophotometer. Miss Diehl instructed the course which met every Wednesday, after school.

Electronics, instructed by Brother Haas, met Tuesday evenings. Things were always buzzing around as students worked with various meters and scopes. While in the class, they completed construction on radios, power supplies, and meters.

Chess Club

Members Keep Their Game in "Check"

The game of chess is learned through practice, and that's exactly what the Chess Club did. Weekly play within the club and tournaments against other schools gave the group plenty of opportunity for improvement. But if that wasn't enough, a six-level chess computer would always accept a game. Moderated by Mr. Paul Gray, the club's membership often fluctuated, but its enthusiasm was constantly there.

The Memory Bank Is Overloaded— With Computers

The Memory Bank (computer club) allows students to gain understanding of the computer, its language and its abilities, and then encourages them to devise original programs to test their skill. Programs could concern almost anything, from games to the latest physics homework.

Three new computers (TRS 80's) that were purchased by Rice helped relieve the dilemma of the never vacant computer. With the four computers, membership in the club expanded, and in its third year it is the fastest growing club in the school!

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders Get Crowd "Fired Up"

Brother Rice High School has never been known to lack spirit, and the 1978-79 cheerleading squad insured that fact for at least another year! When it came to making noise, our group was second to none.

Bob Carey was the captain of the 1979-80 cheerleading squad. Greg Smith and Mike Brooks alternated as the Brother Rice Warrior. Ralph Carolin, Todd Morbach, Mike Shafer, Mark Forte, and Tim Timmis composed the rest of the group.

Whether it was Seaholm's field, Moeller's field, or Catholic Central's gym, this dedicated group could always be found losing their voices to; "If I had a rooster . . ., Up-on-the-roof," or "R-I-C-E go Rice!!!"

The purpose of the Pep Club has always been to stir up enthusiasm in the area of our athletic teams. The 1979-80 Pep Club may have put more paint on themselves than on the paper, but they managed to create some very artistic signs with very clever slogans!

Bob Carey directed the club and allowed anyone interested to join in. The group's funding came from the Student Council and went towards the purchasing of paints, paper, brushes, and tape. Mike Lord's talented painting aided the club enormously, but each person's time was the greatest contribution.

One of the club's most successful projects was the "Maul Moeller" button. It sold out in only two days! The buttons, the signs, and the spirit of the Pep Club, were necessary diversions from the monotony of the typical school day.

Mothers are Active In All Areas of Bro. Rice

The Mother's Club at Brother Rice works throughout the year hosting various functions and raising money for programs that they sponser in the school. The group also tries to get the student's moms together, achieving this through meetings, parties, and luncheons.

The Mother's Club's annual St. Patrick's Day Luncheon, a sellout again this year, channels thousands of dollars toward scholarships for students who can't afford the full tuition at Brother Rice. Presently, sixteen students use the financial aid.

Also hosted by the mothers is the annual Irish Night Auction. It is run jointly between the Mother's and Father's Clubs, and it is the school's greatest fund raiser. Besides the luncheon and Irish Night, the mothers host the senior dinner, incoming student's nights, and, with the Dad's Club, they put together the Boys's Bowl Program.

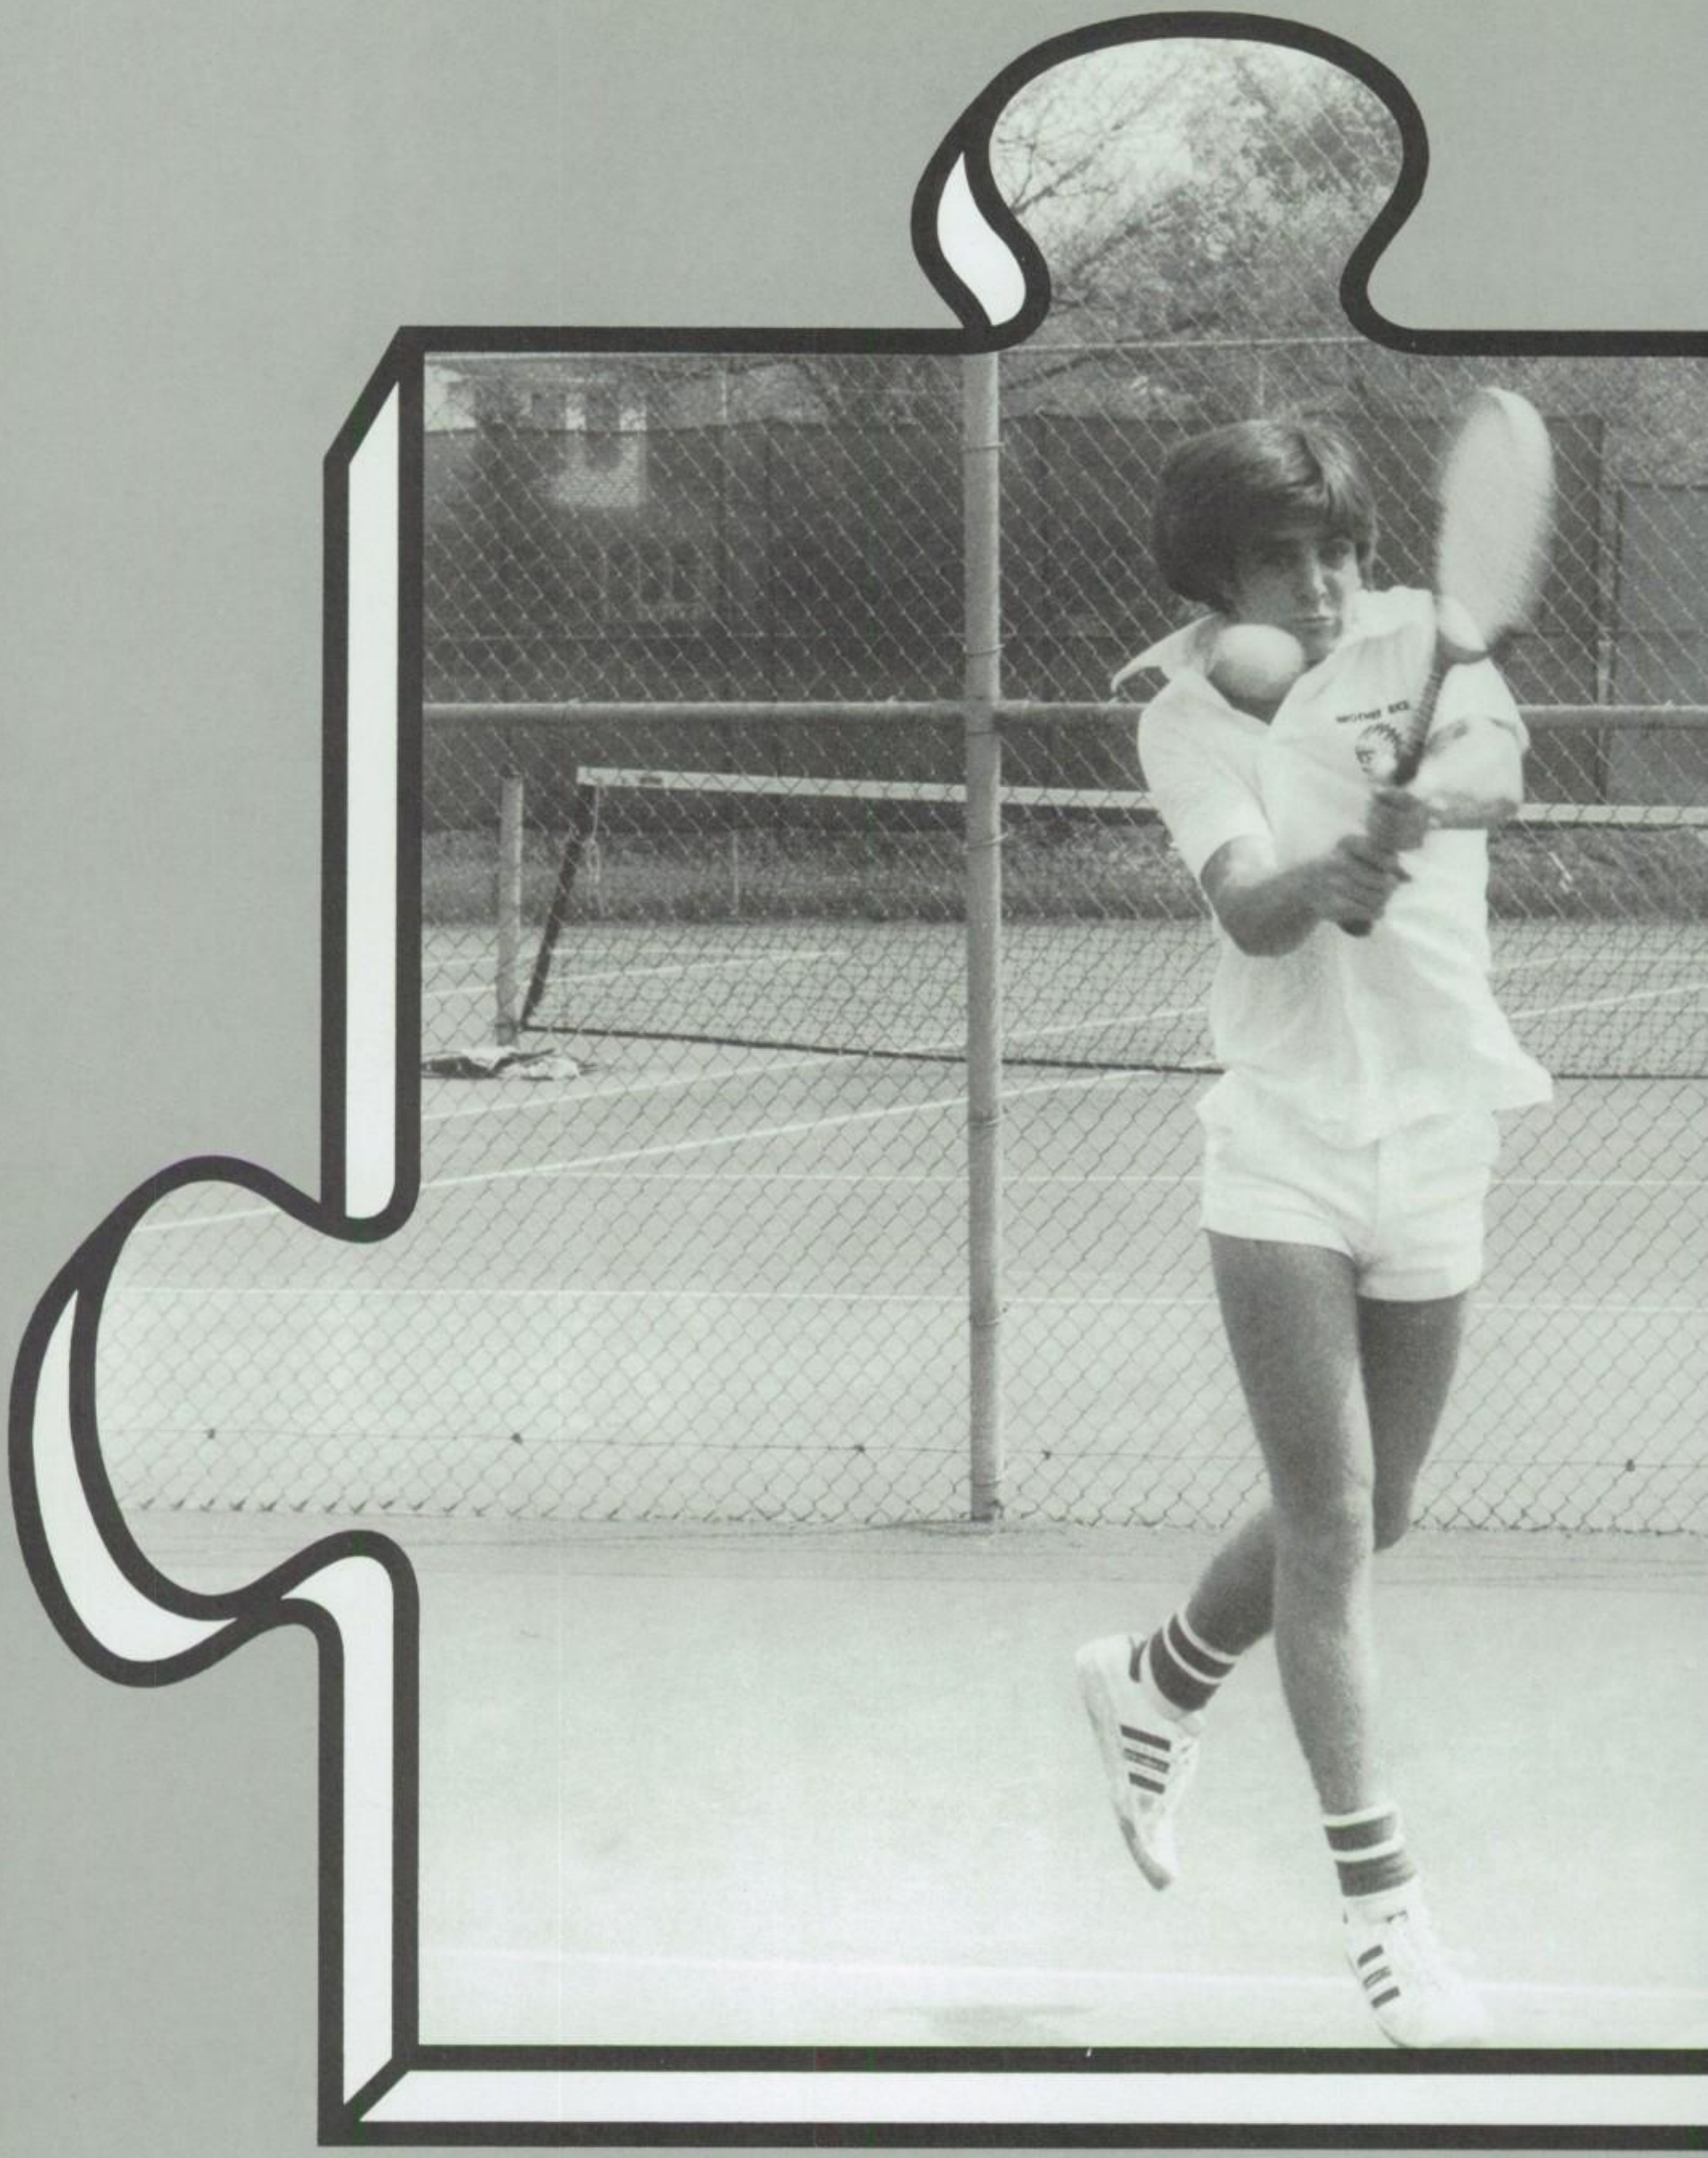
Dad's Club and Irish Night Auction Provide a Push to Keep Rice Going

Under the direction of Mr. Patrick Norton, the Brother Rice Dad's Club performed many useful functions during the 1979-80 school year.

Through the Development Fund Drive, the club has a guaranteed tuition program for students who have lost their supporting parent. The dads also sponsor a summer golf outing which, if you will pardon the expression, "kills two birds with one golfball." The outing raising money for school programs, and, at the same time, it gives the dads an opportunity to get to know one another. (These incidently, are the two objectives of the Dad's Club.) The Father's Club is also active in the Boy's Bowl program, and assists with parking, tickets, and supervision at athletic events.

The biggest project for the Father's Club, however, is the annual Irish Night Auction. Irish Night is sponsored equally by the Mother's Club and the Father's Club, and it is the year's biggest fund-raiser. (Large attendance and large profit!) Even with the recession, almost 600 couples paid the $50.00 ticket price to bid on the 600 donated items. In one evening almost $90,000 was generated for the school!

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS



A sport is more than a game. Sports are an integral part of this school life, for participants and spectators alike. A football game is both a contest and a social event. Among teammates comraderie is built. Friendships develop and fluorish. Relationships that will last a lifetime take root. There is growth within a team and within the individual. Sports and athletics groom a well-rounded person and foster a strong sense of self-discipline. Those fortunate enough to be a member of a team should always and shall always be thankful for the opportunity that they have been given.

Baseball Team's Bats Defend Championship

The Warrior Varsity Baseball Team, rich with veterans, repeated as Catholic League and Detroit City Champions. In league play, the team posted a near perfect 9-1 record, bowing only to Bishop Borgess in the final regular league game. The warriors made the trip to Tiger Stadium twice, each time coming away with victory. In the Catholic League title game, the Warriors defeated Bishop Foley 4-0, and for the City Championship, the team bettered Detroit Osborne by a score of 2-1.

The outstanding overall record of 23-4 reflected the talent of the team, with the Warriors losing only to the likes of Bishop Borgess, Royal Oak Kimball, Rochester Adams, and Flint Carmen. In District play, the Warriors avenged an earlier loss to Royal Oak Kimball by posting a 9-3 victory to earn the District Crown. But the team fell three games short of the State Championship by losing disappointingly to Flint Carmen.

In J.V. play, the Warriors were represented with a fine team with bearings for the future. The hitting of Tom Chisholm and Tim MacLean, plus the pitching of Paul Jokish and Kevin Flynn have the coaches looking at possible future championships.

The Varsity was coached by Al Fracassa and Ron Kalczynski and the J.V.'s by Dave Kozlowski.

Tennis Team Triumps
Netters 3rd in State

1979 was the most successful year ever for the Brother Rice tennis team. Under the direction of Coach Don McKercher, the netters finished the season with a 14-0 dual match record, including wins over Ann Arbor Huron, the defending state class A champions, and Cranbrook. This was the first year Rice ever beat Cranbrook, a perennially state ranked team. Continuing in this manner, the netters annihilated Catholic Central 7-0, for the Catholic League championship, and won the state regional tournament easily, tallying 25 points out of a possible 28.

After the regular season was over, the tennis team headed for Midland and the state class A tennis finals. At the state tournament, teams from all over Michigan converged on the Midland Tennis center for the start of the state class A tennis finals. On the courts, few teams were more formidable than the Warriors. In a tough three set semi-final match, the number one doubles team of Terry Beale and Charlie Dunn turned away seven match points enroute to victory and a place in the finals. This win gave Rice the points it needed to nail down third place, the best Rice showing ever in the state tennis championships for the Warriors.

To achieve this, their best record ever, the Warrior racketeers used a combination of excellent performances by such individuals as senior Blase Keating and junior Bill Harahan, and great team play by all the members of the 1979 Brother Rice Tennis Team.

Titles Highlight Successful Season

The Brother Rice Track Team placed impressively in a number of high school track and field events this year, ending the 1979 season with a superior record of seven and one. The season was highlighted by a unique combination of overpowering sprinting and consistent long distant running. These talents enabled the team to run away with several championships, including the Catholic League, Oakland County, and State Regional Championships. The team was lead this year by seniors Rod Larees, Tom Finn, and Peter Kelley as captains. Many school records were broken this year: Jon English set the high jump record with a leap of 6'10", Rod Larees dashed the 330 lows in 39.0 seconds, and Jim Browne put the shot 56'4" and also tossed the discus 154'10".

The mile relay race proved to be the deciding event in the team's close victories against Lahser and Catholic Central. The mile relay team was composed of Tom Finn, Don Pietrowski, Brian Brennan, and John Cunningham. Many of these tracksters owe their fine season to the experienced coaching of Bob Stark and Mike Popson, who have been instrumental in providing leadership and guidance to the fine young runners at Brother Rice. This exceptional coaching was a key element in the development and success of this year's dominating team.

Young and Inexperienced Linksters Make Strong Showing in League Play

Despite losing all of last year's golf team, the Warriors came back wit another good year in 1979. Under the expert direction of Coach Ji Rademacher the linksters made the best of a rebuilding season. Two golfer Pat Ramos, and Terry Beale, made both All-League and All-Catholic. Ji Humphrey and Rick Barnes added to these two fine golfers to make up a ver respectable foursome. Riding on the talents of these four golfers, the tea placed second in the Catholic Division, losing only to Catholic Central, an third in the Catholic League. The linksters then went on to place third in th State Regionals and sixteenth in the State Championships.

Considering the circumstances, the Warriors made a very strong showin this year, placing sixteenth in the State despite the inexperience of all th golfers, none of whom had played in a varsity golf match before.

Harriers' Season Capped by Regional Championship

The 1979 Harriers, a competitive collection of outstanding runners, continued the tradition of excellence at Brother Rice yet another year! The season started with the dedicated runners logging up to 450 miles over the summer. This provided a firm base for the team's fine performances during the year.

The squad ran admirably in their dual meets with the only loss to a strong Catholic Central team. The loss was more than repaid by the triumph over C.C. in the Catholic League Championship. The team added even more feathers to their cap with successes in the Oakland County and State Regional Championships. The invitational schedule was highlighted by victories in the Milford-Lakeland and Downriver Invitationals this year.

The team's talent was noted in the rankings, as they were rated third just before the state meet. They finished, however, a disappointing twentieth. This did not reflect the team's true ability considering their competent coaching.

Leadership was given by tri-captains Chris Yaw, Tim Sullivan, and John MacManus. Coach Stark disciplined the team by constantly pushing runners when they thought fewer miles needed to be covered. Mr. Stark persisted even when various team members expressed dissatisfaction by being asked to go to a street named "Maple".

An impressive group of underclassmen including Chris Dorcey, Joe Davey, and Pat Johnston supported the team. Many other fine runners united this year's team.

Young Warriors Proud Despite Losses

Despite facing one of the school's toughest schedules ever, the 1979 Warrior football team upheld the Brother Rice tradition of excellence both on and off the field.

The first game of the season was a hard-fought victory over St. Clair Shores Lake Shore, won by a score of 27-6. The game featured great running by Jim Browne and Brian Brennan who gained over 200 and 100 yards, respectively. The next game, in which the Warriors prevailed 13-7, was against a powerful team from Grosse Pointe North. The game was marred by fumbles but the Warrior defense provided the needed effort of the margin of victory.

The third game of the season was a battle with nationally number one ranked Cincinnati Moeller. Although Moeller won 33-14 the game was much closer than the score indicated. The Warriors trailed only 13-7 at the half and made more first downs than any other Moeller opponent.

The Warriors returned to Michigan for a lopsided, 49-0 thrashing of Bishop Borgess on the following weekend before heading to Wisner Stadium and the annual Boy's Bowl game against Michigan's number one ranked team and eventual State Champions, Catholic Central. Despite the loss of Brian Brennan on the opening play of the game, the gridders gave the Shamrocks a tough fight all the way until a field goal in overtime won the game for the opponents.

Again rebounding from, defeat, the Warriors took an easy victory from U of D. and a hard-fought win from Notre Dame before being upset by a fine Bishop Gallagher squad by a score of 28-22. Despite this setback, the Warriors managed to end the season on a winning note, trouncing Bishop Foley in the season finale, 24-10.

Even though the team was a somewhat disappointing 6-3 record for the season, four individuals were prominently mentioned in the All-State polls. Jim Browne, Brian Brennan, Kevin Kennedy, and Mark Moore received recognition, showing that the pollsters still respected Brother Rice for taking the initiative to play with the toughest schedule in the state.

The 1979 Freshmen Football Team started the year with a bang. Under the guidance of Mr. Leu, Mr. Coche, Mr. Major and Mr. Dushane, the young gridders had a winning season. Their overall record was six wins and two losses. The high scoring offense averaged over 20 points a game while the defense only allowed about 5 points per game. The offensive standouts for the season were Chris Ryan, Allen Sparks, Mike Barron and Terry Monahan. The crushing defense was led by Mike McInerney, Mark Nichols and Matt Chiodo.

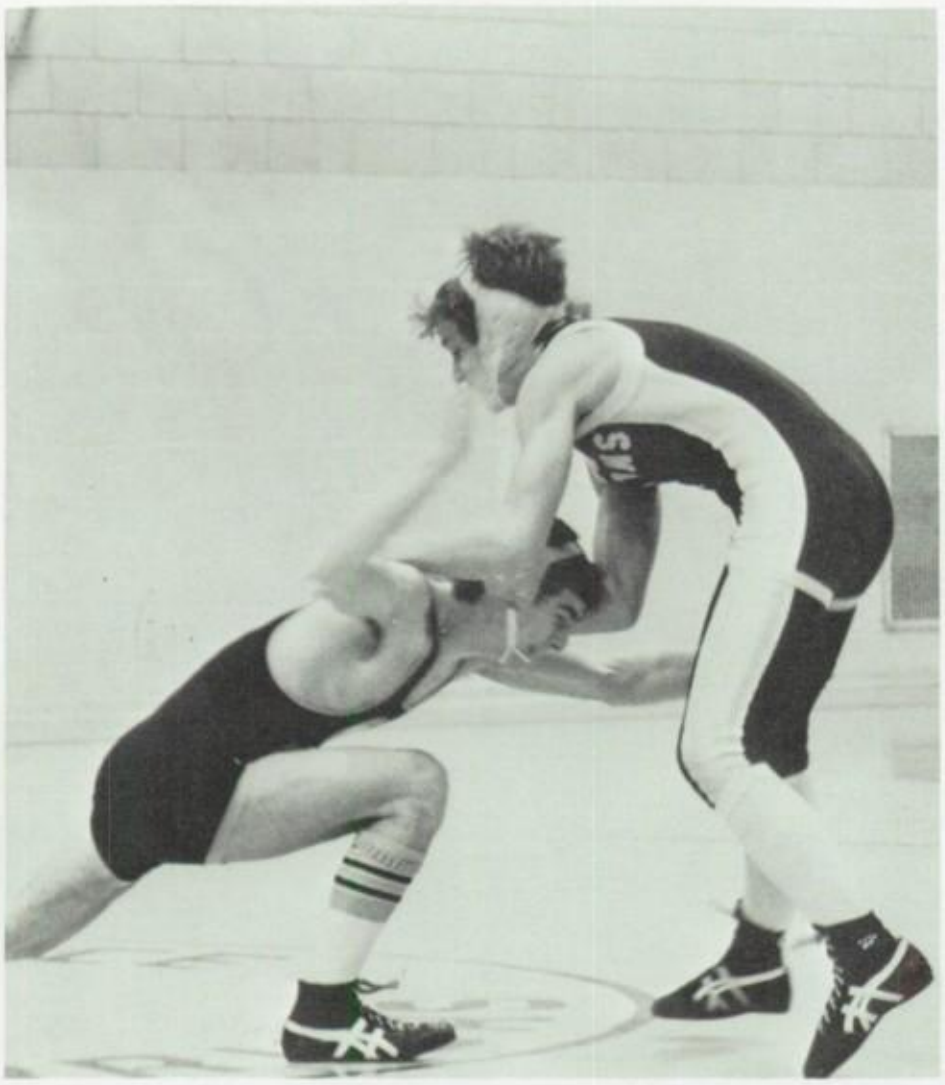
Warrior Wrestlers Second in Catholic League; Finish 14-8



In only their second year of wrestling, the Warrior grapplers had their first winning season, were ranked in the county and showed a strong finish in the Catholic League, Districts and Regionals.

To start their dual meet season the young Warriors travelled to Ohio to face tough Cardinal Stritch, Ohio's perennial wrestling power, and scored more points on Stritch than any other team from Michigan. Then the Warriors rushed on to a 14-8 record, winning against such teams as Notre Dame, Pontiac Catholic, Clarkston, Troy Athens, and Wyandotte Roosevelt.

In tournament action the Varsity wrestlers placed in many prestigious tournaments, earning a name for themselves. They placed Second in the Garden City East Invitational, Birmingham and Bloomfield Tournament and the Catholic League Invitational.

The team was led by Tom Kern, Jerome Malczewski, Regional qualifier Mark Nichols, and State qualifiers Druex Nelson (105 lbs.) and Bob Fallon (Hwt.). Coaches John V. Major, Bill Dushane and Br. Dalton worked the team hard. The B-team, led by Jerry Cruitt, closed out their season with a 8-6 record.

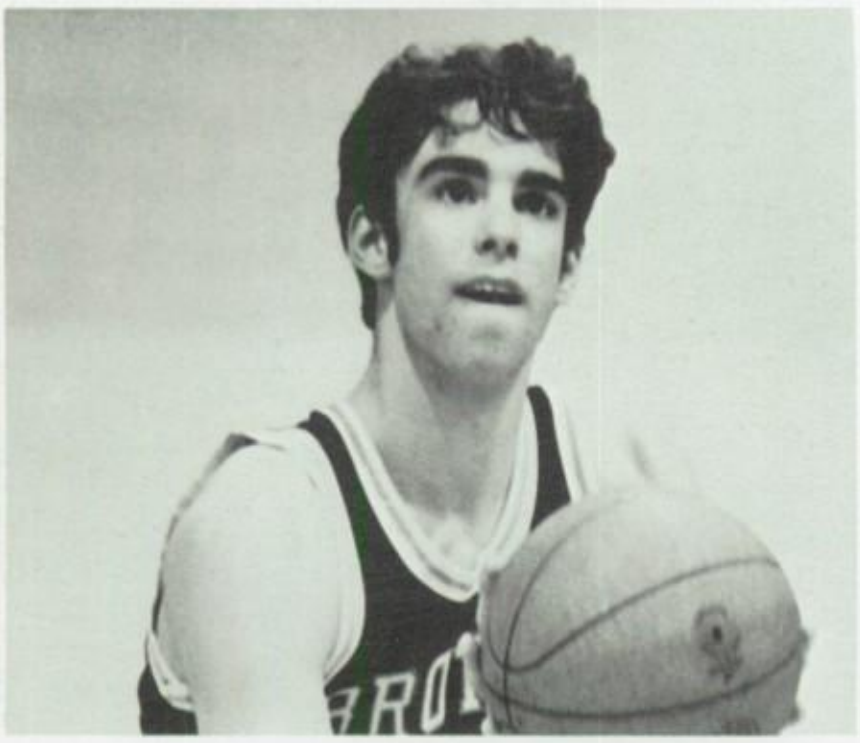
Varsity Cagers Net Regional Title With Gutty Performances



The 1980 Varsity Basketball Team opened its season with two disappointing losses to Warren and River Rouge. With what seemed to be the beginning of a slow season, Rice fans began to get worried. Beginning to move, the Cagers first half of the season was highlighted by a stunning victory over Catholic Central.

Going into the Catholic League Playoffs the Warriors beat a tough East Catholic. After a win over Divine Child the Cagers faced the Catholic Central Shamrocks for the third time. The team did not seem prepared for the game and they lost badly.

The District Championship seemed to be easily won for the Warriors. After victories over Seaholm and Lahser, the Warriors went on to beat Andover and gain the District Title.

In winning the Regionals, the Warriors beat Dondero and Southfield. However the hopes for a State Title proved ill-fated when the team lost to Utica Eisenhower by two points.

Throughout the season the Warriors were anchored by seniors Brian Brennan, Rob Manilla, Judd Hart, Tom Chisolm, and Kerwin Smith.

Freshmen Warriors Dunk Opposition

Led by outstanding captains Chris Ryan and Jeff Kohler, the 1980 Freshman Basketball team hooped and hustled its way to victory. Winning seven out of ten games in league play, the Warriors were able to boast the best record in six years and a second place ranking in the league. Their successful season was also highlighted by a victory over Shrine in the first of many annual Frosh Tournaments.

J.V. Cagers Net A Victorious Season With Teamwork, Effort

Varsity basketball opponents, Beware! The 1980 Brother Rice Junior Varsity Basketball Team was quick, talented, and full of potential. With the excellent coaching of Mr. Granger and the leadership of captains Rodney Brown and Greg Abowd, the J.V. Warriors chalked up a 9-8 overall record with such highlights as a 63 to 54 trouncing of Ferndale and close battle with Catholic Central. Although it cannot be denied that the team possessed some truly outstanding stars, it was the teamwork and the effort of every member which earned their success.

Bowlers Roll To a Fifth Place Finish

The 1980 Brother Rice Warrior bowlers proved to be winners as three seniors returned to lead the varsity to a 5th place in both halves of the season. Team captain Mike Schmidt lead the team in scoring with a 174 average, one of the best in the league. League high game honors went to Brad Froling with an outstanding 268. The varsity team was rounded out by seniors Kevin Laclede, Bob Brown and junior Bill Caverly. After a fast start under second year coach Br. D. Herron, the team faced many tough league opponents and ended the season with a winning record. There were no rolloffs at the end of the season.

Prospects for the future look good with two returning varsity keglers. The J.V. squad proved to be winners also in league play. The B team finished the season in a tie for 1st place. The C team rolled to a 6th place. Rodger Rooney, Larry Malik, John Grawburg, Pat McGann, Tim McCafferty, Andrew Aubrey, Rob Heinle, Jim Wrobel, Jerry Ankenbrandt and Maher Sarafa compiled the J.V. team. Malik and Grawburg led the team with averages of 152.

Ice Warriors Capture Regional State Championship for the Second Season

The 1979-80 Ice Warriors wrapped up one of their most successful seasons ever in the state tournament. For the second year in a row, the icemen made the final eight in the state, only to lose to the eventual state champion, Fraser.

Going into the state tournament, second year coach Br. Segvich had to contend with a small and inexperienced team and a first round matchup with archrival Catholic Central, a team that had defeated the Warriors twice in the regular season. Led by Captain and All-Stater Tim Dugan, who played with an injured elbow, the Warriors emotionally and physically outmatched the Shamrocks. With great defensive efforts by Al Chapman, Pete "The Abuser" Moorton, Jim Nagy, Jeff Triest along with Mike Roche's superb goaltending, the pucksters turned the tables on the Shamrocks. Kerry Kennedy contributed a hat trick to the stunning 5-2 upset over the Shamrocks.

The Warriors gained two more victories in the tournament before Fraser eliminated them from contention.

Wonder Warriors' Hard Work Leads Them to Conquest

Despite a slow start, the 1980 Water Wonder Warriors had a truly outstanding season, chalking up a 9-4 record in dual meets. Lead by Coach George O'Brien and Captains Shawn Keating and Bob Biehl, the Warriors captured the Catholic League Title for the fifth consecutive year, with Barry Blake and Ray Peck placing first and second in the league diving competition.

Consistently strong performances were turned in by Shawn Keating, Bob Biehl, Rob Mackle, Kevin McJoynt, Matt Ward, Chris Deighan and rookies Rich and Rob Kramer. These nine swimmers were taken to the State Finals, where Brother Rice finished 11th in a list of over 70 Michigan Class A schools.

These tanker triumphs, combined with other highlights as second place finishes in the Rochester Relays and Oakland County meet, helped the 1980 Water Wonder Warriors live up to their name.

Seniors. The product of four years of high school is much more than a senior. It is an individual, an adult. A stage of maturation has reached its end. The graduate is a far different person than the confused freshman he once was. He has grappled with and attained a sense of self-identity, and hopefully, direction. The past is a nostalgic memory and the future is a promising dream. Making the best of his life is the senior's future role, and armed with experience and Christian values he is prepared for what lies ahead.

The Class of 1980 was much like and much unlike the sixteen graduating classes which preceded it. The Class of 1980 was like the other sixteen classes in that it had its share of Michigan Competitive Scholars, National Merit Finalists, and Phi Beta Kappa winners. It had its share of All-State football, basketball, and baseball players. Ninety-eight percent of the class plan to go on to college, an impressive figure for any school, but consistent for Brother Rice.

The spirit of the Class of 1980 was also unlike that of previous years. Despite a strong belief to the contrary, there was very much a spirit to the Class of '80. The problem was capturing, identifying, and labeling it. The spirit was elusive, but it was present. It was the Spirit of '80, dramatically unlike any class spirit seen, or felt, before. It was present during the Homecoming Dance at the Main Event, during the Senior Prom at Hillcrest, in the musicals behind which the Seniors were the driving force, and in the Blood Drive, which far surpassed the goals of the Red Cross. One had to be a member of the Class of 1980 to truly appreciate what the spirit was.

Field Day promised that the Seniors held "the Key to Success." This hopeful thought was sincere, but more than successful, it is hoped that these new Brother Rice graduates will be happy, happy with themselves and happy with their lives. To employ a vastly overused cliche, the members of the Class of 1980 have matured since that fateful day in August of 1976 when they first entered these halls. Few of them are leaving as the same person. Values have been built and values have been destroyed, ideals have been followed and ideals have been forgotten, but whether through school or through the world, today's Seniors have grown.

At the Senior Dinner, each member of the Class of 1980 was given a copy of the Desiderata. "Go peacefully amidst the noise and haste," it urges, because, as it later tells us, "whether we know it or not, the universe is unfolding as it should." These prophetic words from an anonymous, but brilliant wiseman are of great import in days such as these, when the future, at times, looks less than bright. To be strong in troubled times is to be strong of spirit, and to be strong of spirit, we must be at peace with both ourselves and our God.

The Seniors have graduated to become the first class of the 80's, and with that, have the advantage of a mental fresh start. One's life is what one makes of it. With the Class of 1980, the making has just begun.

Commencement 1980

May 18, 1980 saw the graduation of two-hundred and fifty four Seniors. It was, in all probability, the last complete gathering of the Class of 1980, and as such, was full of the sentiment, of the nostalgia, of which such events are made. Valedictorian John Merline, in his address, stated that the true value of our high school experience will only be seen in retrospect later on in life. Quoting Alfred E. Newman, "Hindsight," Merline said, "is twenty-twenty." John Griffin was the Class Salutatorian, and in the ceremony's most emotional moment, the Class presented Bro. Robert Brouillette with the honored Facere et Docere Award.

For the seventeenth time, Brother Rice had seen a class come and go. The Class of 1980 would be left with many memories, and with many friends.

As the final piece is inserted into this book I am somewhat puzzled by the method with which it was put together. Great things were expected from this staff, with a nucleus of four returning members. But while we believe the quality of the book has not suffered it unfortunately didn't appear as early as planned. This did have its advantages though, as we were able to put more pieces into the Quest than ever before, covering graduation, prom, Rice-Marian Weekend, Guys and Dolls, and Florida within the binding.

We would like to thank all who helped us complete this recap of the 1979-80 year, especially Modern Yearbook for being patient, and Crane Studios for their assistance with the photography. We would also like to thank Br. James Keane for stepping into a difficult situation as new moderator and finally pulling us together. But the most gratitude goes to those on the staff who put forth their time and effort, often at the most difficult times, to complete this project. I hope the 1980 Quest enables you to remember and relive in memory the pieces you laid in the building of the Brother Rice picture.
